THIS, the second volume of the Lower Provinces Code, is published under the authority of the Government of India, and contains, first, the unrepealed Acts of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal in Council, and, secondly, the Regulations for certain districts in Bengal made under the thirty-third of Victoria, cap. 3.

It is founded on the official copies of the Acts of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council and of the Regulations made under 33 Vic., cap. 3, preserved in the Legislative Department.

The only changes made in reprinting are the following:—

(a.) Repealed portions of Acts have been omitted, except in some cases where the repeal is not specific. In such cases the repeal is mentioned in a foot-note.

(b.) Where an Act directs that a section, a clause or words be inserted in a former Act, in reprinting the former Act the insertion has been made.

(c.) Where one Act refers to another and such reference is directed by a subsequent Act to be read as if made to the latter Act, the number, year and title of the latter Act have, as a rule, been substituted in the text.

(d.) Arabic numerals have been substituted for the Roman numerals used in the earlier Acts to denote the section-numbers.

(e.) Words belonging to oriental languages have been uniformly spelt.

(f.) Lengthy sections have sometimes been divided into clauses and paragraphs.

(g.) In some instances, marginal notes have been added ; in others, they have been shortened or corrected.

The Registrar, Legislative Department, is responsible for the correct printing of unaltered matter.

While this volume was passing through the Press, the following Acts have been repealed and should be cancelled :—

Bengal Act VI of 1862.

Bengal Act VI of 1864.

<sup>d</sup>INSTRUCTIONS TO SURVEYORS OF STEAM-VESSELS, IN COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 8 OF ACT V OF 1862, PASSED BY THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR OF BENGAL IN COUNCIL.

Preliminary.

1. The present revised instructions relate to the duties to be performed by engineer and shipwright surveyors under Act V of 1862.
2. The instructions are numbered for facility of reference.

INSTRUCTIONS TO ENGINEER AND SHIPWRIGHT SURVEYORS-GENERAL

1. Surveys are, when practicable, to be made in the months of January and July, so that the declarations may be transmitted to the Master-Attendant on or before the last day of January and the last day of July, respectively.

2. But if, when the survey ought to be made, the vessel is absent from the port, or is not in a proper condition for a survey, either from being under construction or repair, or for any other sufficient reason, then the survey is to be made as soon afterwards as possible, and the declaration is to be transmitted with a statement endorsed therein by the surveyor of the reasons which have prevented the survey being held at the time prescribed.

3. Each surveyor is to be careful that the owners of the steam-vessels requiring survey are informed that they are to give him at least three days' notice in writing when a survey is required;

9. Any surveyor demanding or receiving directly or indirectly from the owner, master or officer of any ship surveyed by him under the provisions of this Act, any fee or remuneration otherwise than as provided by this Act, shall be liable to dismissal, in addition to any other penalty to which he may by law be liable.

Penalty for surveyor receiving unauthorized fee, &c.

and that, should such notice fail to be given, he (the surveyor) is not responsible for any delay or inconvenience which may occur in consequence.

4. This notice (which is to be preserved by the surveyor) must state explicitly the name of the steamer to be surveyed, and the time when, and place at which, she will be ready for inspection.

5. In order to prevent inconvenience and delay to the owners, the surveyors are to be careful to be in attendance at the appointed time and place. Should they be unable to attend as required, notice should be given to the owners to that effect.

6. Should a steamer not be ready for inspection at the time arranged, the surveyors may make such arrangement for the subsequent survey as may be convenient to the owner or his agent. All expenses arising out of this postponement will be charged on the owner when the certificate is issued.

7. If, in consequence of any accident to the steam-ship, or for any other reason, the surveyor considers it necessary to require the vessel to be taken into dock, for the purpose of surveying the hull thereof, he may do so, but he is to be careful to exercise this power only when the circumstances of the case actually require it.

8. The surveyors may go on board any steam-ship at all reasonable times for the purpose of inspection of the vessel, the machinery, the boats or other equipments rendered necessary by the Act, and the owners, masters and engineers of steam-ships are required by the Act to give to the surveyors, on being requested so to do, all such information and assistance within their power as may be requisite for the purpose of making the returns. In the performance of this part of their duty, the surveyors are to be careful to avoid impeding the duty of the vessel or giving offence to any of the officers; but should they be hindered or vexatiously obstructed by any person in the performance of their duties, they are to communicate the same without delay to the Master-Attendant.

9. The surveyors are to make their inspections together, and should do so when the agent, master or chief mate, and engineer of the vessel are present. Repairs can then be ordered, and defects can be pointed out to the proper persons without incurring the uncertainty and delay attendant upon messages delivered to subordinate officers. In the case of iron-vessels, the engineer-surveyor should accompany the shipwright in his examination of such parts of the hull and partitions as are in any manner connected with the machinery, or through which any pipe, valve or shaft connected with the engines may pass. Whenever a shipwright-surveyor intends to inspect a vessel in dock, or on the ground, he should be very careful to notify his intention to the engineer-surveyor, in order that the engineer may also examine the outside part connected with the machinery without the necessity of ordering the vessel to be re-docked.

10. It is a part of the surveyors' duty to report all cases of infringement of this Act which come to their notice, and in reporting them they should take care to state what the evidence is on which their report is founded.

Declarations and certificates.

11. Surveyors are in no case to give a declaration either for the hull or machinery of a steamer unless they are satisfied that all the requirements of the Act have been complied with.

12. Certificates are not to remain in force, under any circumstances, beyond the period of six months.

13. But in any case in which either of the surveyors has reason to believe that the hull or machinery is not fit for so long a time as above-mentioned, he is to grant his declaration for such shorter period as he may deem expedient, informing the owners at the time of his reasons for so doing in such cases; and also in cases in which a joint declaration is refused, he is to give, if required, a statement in writing of the repairs he considers necessary to enable him to grant a declaration of the usual time, provided that no certificate shall be granted for a shorter period than three months.

14. The surveyors shall in all cases specify in the column of remarks of the certificate the number and capacity of the boats carried by the vessel.

15. The surveyors are to keep an account of the persons to whom, and the dates on which, their declarations are given.

16. Every person who knowingly and wilfully makes, or assists in making, or procures to be made, a false or fraudulent declaration or certificate with respect to any steamer requiring a certi-

Fee for survey.

10. For every survey made under this Act the owner or master of the steam-vessel surveyed shall pay to the surveyors making the same a fee calculated on the tonnage of the vessel according to the rates in schedule B hereto annexed.

ificate, or who forges, assists in forging, or procures to be forged, fraudulently alters, assists in fraudulently altering, or procures to be fraudulently altered, any declaration or certificate, or any words or figures in any such declaration or certificate, or any signature thereto, is guilty of misdemeanour.

17. The Act requires that the certificate shall be put up in a conspicuous place where it will be visible to all persons on board, under a penalty not exceeding Rs. 100 for each offence, and the surveyors are to inform the Master-Attendant of any case of non-compliance with this enactment which may come to their knowledge.

Accident and Damages.

18. In all cases in which a steam-ship has sustained damage from any accident or other cause affecting her seaworthiness or efficiency in any part of her hull, equipments or machinery, the surveyors are to go on board and ascertain the extent of damages. In doing so they will take care not to make any change in the position or condition of things on board which would be at all likely to affect any legal evidence, should an enquiry into the case afterwards be considered necessary.

19. They are forthwith to send a report to the Master-Attendant, in order that the certificate may be cancelled if necessary. In this report they are to state whether the vessel is rendered inefficient or unseaworthy, either in hull or machinery, and whether, in their opinion, the certificate should be cancelled, or only temporarily withdrawn.

20. Unless directions to the contrary are given by the Master-Attendant, the surveyor is to hold the certificate of the vessel during the time the vessel is under repair, and for this purpose he is to require it of the master.

21. Should the master or owner decline to give up the certificate, the surveyor is to send information immediately to the Master-Attendant, so that, if necessary, it may be cancelled.

22. When the vessel is in every respect rendered seaworthy and efficient, both in hull and machinery, to the entire satisfaction of the surveyor, he is to put an endorsement on the certificate to the effect that the damage has been made good so as to last either for the period for which the certificate was granted, or for any limited period for which he may consider it perfectly safe for the vessel to run, and allow the vessel to proceed. He is then to send to the Master-Attendant a statement of the extent of the repair that was necessary, and a copy of the endorsement made on the certificate.

23. In all cases in which a surveyor is directed by the Master-Attendant to obtain from an owner or master a certificate that has expired, or has been cancelled or revoked, he is to apply for it without delay; and, in the event of his application not being attended to, he is at once to report the case.

24. All books, forms and papers required for carrying the Act into effect will be forwarded from time to time by the Master-Attendant.

INSTRUCTIONS TO ENGINEER-SURVEYORS.

Boilers and Machinery.

25. The machinery to be surveyed comprises the engines and the boilers used for propelling the vessel, and all the machinery connected therewith. The boilers of donkey-engines are to be surveyed with the boilers and machinery of the vessel when they are in any way connected with them; but boilers and machinery used for loading and unloading the vessel, or used exclusively for purposes unconnected with the motive power of the vessel, do not form a part of the machinery required to be surveyed by this Act.

26. In the examination of the machinery and boilers, the engineer-surveyor will be particularly careful; he must in no case give a declaration without thoroughly satisfying himself that both the boilers and the rest of the machinery are sufficient for the service intended and in good condition.

27. The engineer-surveyor, in his examination of the machinery and boilers, is particularly to direct his attention to the safety-valves, and whenever he considers it necessary, he is to satisfy himself as to the pressure upon the boiler by actual trial.

Safety-valves.

28. Each boiler must be fitted with a safety-valve, constructed so that it shall be entirely out of the control of the engineer when the steam is up, and so that he may not have the power of increasing the pressure upon it in any manner whilst the vessel is under steam.

11. Each certificate and declaration granted by surveyors under this Act shall be hung up, and remain at all times suspended, in some conspicuous part of the vessel for which the same is granted, where the same may be easily read; and in default of compliance with this provision, every owner or master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred rupees for each offence, such fine to be leviable by distraint or sale of personal property.

Certificates to be hung up in conspicuous part of vessel.

29. The responsibility of seeing to the efficiency of the mode in which this is done rests with the surveyor, but either of the following modes appears to the Master-Attendant to be satisfactory :—

1st.—The valves may either be contained wholly within the boiler and accessible through the manhole only; or

2nd.—It may be on the outside of the boiler, closed in a box sufficiently large only for the weights and the necessary motion for them, and secured by a lock, of which the key is to be kept by the master of the vessel, who will be responsible should any additional weight or pressure be placed on the valve.

30. No boiler or steam-chamber is to be so constructed, fitted or arranged, as that the escape of the steam from it through the safety-valve can be wholly or partially intercepted by the action of any other valve.

31. The Government safety-valve is in all cases to be of at least the same area as the ordinary safety-valve upon the same boiler, and to bear an equal or less pressure, but not in any case a greater.

32. It is extremely desirable that the safety-valve before-mentioned should be in addition to the ordinary valve, and the surveyor should point out this to the owners of vessels; but as it is not expressly enjoined by the Act, they are not to refuse a declaration on account of the recommendation not being complied with.

33. The engineer-surveyor is to fix the limits of the weight to be placed on the safety-valves, and in doing so he must be particularly careful.

34. When he has determined the amount of the pressure, he is to see the valve weighted accordingly, and the weights fixed in such a manner as to preclude the possibility of their shifting.

35. The limits of the weight on the valves will have to be inserted in the declaration, and should it at any time come to the knowledge of a surveyor that the weights have been shifted or otherwise altered, or that the valve has in any way been interfered with, he is at once to report to the Master-Attendant.

36. Surveyors are to call the attention of persons connected with the machinery of vessels to the fact that, if any person places an undue weight upon the safety-valve of any steam-ship, or increases such weight beyond the limits fixed by the surveyor, he is, in addition to other liabilities, subject to a penalty of Rs. 100 for every offence.

INSTRUCTIONS TO SHIPWRIGHT-SURVEYORS.

Hull of the Ship.

37. The surveyor is to determine whether the hull of a vessel is in good condition and fit for the service for which she is intended, and he is to examine the bottom of the vessel outside once at least in every year at such a time as is most convenient to the owner.

Boats.

38. It will be the duty of the shipwright-surveyor to take care that all steam-ships are provided with boats according to their tonnage, both as to number and cubic contents, and to be very particular in seeing that they are efficient and in good order and ready for service.

39. These boats must be duly supplied with all requisites for use, and the surveyors are to see that those requisites are in thorough repair, and that they, together with the boats themselves, are always in such a position as to be available without delay in case of danger. The plugs and shole-pins are always to be attached to the boats by lanyards. Amongst the requisites for use there must be included efficient means for lowering the boats into the water safely and expeditiously; and surveyors are to refuse declarations in cases in which the boats are in such a position as not to be ready for use in an emergency, or in which efficient means are not provided for lowering them.

40. It is to be left to ship-owners themselves to provide such methods as they please for lowering the boats, so long as the intention of the legislature is, in the surveyor's judgment, complied with.

Duration of certificate.

12. No certificate or declaration shall be held to be in force for the purposes of this Act after the expiration of six calendar months from the date thereof.

Proviso as to vessels absent
when certificate expires.

Provided that, if any steam-vessel shall not be in any port of survey<sup>a</sup> when her certificate and declaration expire, no penalty shall be incurred for the want of a certificate and declaration, until she first begins to ply or is about to ply after her next subsequent arrival at some port of survey.<sup>b</sup>

Delivery of expired or revoked certificate.

And the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, or any officer appointed by him for that purpose,<sup>c</sup> may require any certificate and declaration, which has expired or has been revoked or cancelled, to be delivered up as may be directed; and any owner or master or other person who, without reasonable cause, neglects or refuses to comply with such requirement, shall incur a penalty not exceeding one hundred rupees for each offence.

Power to cancel certificate and declaration.

13. The Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, or any officer appointed or authorized by him for that purpose,<sup>d</sup> may revoke and cancel any certificate and declaration granted under this Act in any case in which he has reason to believe—

(1) that the certificate and declaration of the sufficiency and good condition of the hull, equipments and machinery of any steam-vessel, or either of them, have been fraudulently or erroneously given or made: or

(2) that such certificate and declaration have otherwise been issued upon false or erroneous information: or

(3) that since the giving and making of such certificate and declaration, the hull, equipments or machinery of such ship have sustained any injury, or are otherwise insufficient.

And in every such case the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, or such officer as last aforesaid, may, if he thinks fit, require the owner or master to have such steam-vessel again surveyed as herein provided.

When Government may order second survey by other surveyors.

14. If any steam-vessel shall be surveyed under the provisions of this Act, and if the surveyors shall decline to give any certificate or declaration, or shall give a certificate or declaration with which the owner or master of the steam-vessel shall be dissatisfied, the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal may,

Life-buoys.

41. Life-buoys should in all cases be carefully examined by the surveyor, in order to satisfy himself of their buoyancy, to see that the material of which they are composed has not become sodden, and that the lines attached to them are sufficient.

42. The steam-whistle in use as a fog-signal should be surveyed by the engineer-surveyor as well as by the shipwright, and care should be taken that both it and the fog-horn and bell are in a serviceable condition.

a, b Bengal Act No. I of 1868, section 4.

on the application of such owner or master, appoint two other competent surveyors to survey the said steam-vessel.

The surveyors so appointed shall forthwith survey the said steam-vessel and shall either decline to give any certificate and declaration, or shall give such certificate and declaration as under the circumstances may seem to them proper.

Every survey made under this section shall be made subject to all the provisions and rules both as to the payment of fees and otherwise, which are applicable to surveys made in ordinary cases under this Act.

If the surveyors appointed under this section unanimously refuse to give any certificate and declaration, or agree as to the terms of their certificate and declaration, such refusal or such certificate and declaration shall be final and conclusive; but if they do not agree, the refusal originally made, or the certificate and declaration originally granted, by the surveyors who surveyed the said steam-vessel in the first instance, shall remain and be of full force and effect.

15. Any case arising out of this Act may be tried by any officer having the full powers of a Magistrate within whose jurisdiction the offence may have been committed, or by any Police Magistrate of the town of Calcutta. The provisions of section 66 of the Indian Ports Act, 1875<sup>a</sup> are hereby extended to all penalties imposed under this Act; and all fees due under section 10 of this Act shall be recoverable in like manner as penalties are recoverable.

Offences under Act by whom tried.

16. The word "surveyors" as used in this Act shall be taken to include any surveyor acting alone when authorized so to do by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal under the provisions of this Act.

"Surveyors" includes surveyor acting alone.

An Act to amend Act X of 1859 (to amend the law relating to the recovery of Rent in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal).<sup>a</sup>

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend Act X of 1859, so far as the same relates to the Provinces subject to the Government of Bengal; It is enacted as follows :—

1. Sections 26, 40, 74, 79, 86, 150 and 162 of Act X of 1859 are hereby repealed, except as regards suits under the said Act X of 1859 instituted prior to the passing of this Act.

Preamble.
Repeal of certain sections of Act X of 1859.

2. In any suit hereafter to be brought for rent under Act X of 1859, if it shall appear to the Court that the defendant has without reasonable or probable cause neglected or refused to pay the amount due by him, and that he has not before the institution of the suit tendered such amount to the plaintiff or his duly authorized agent, or, in case of refusal of the plaintiff or such agent to receive the amount tendered, has not deposited such amount with the Collector before the institution of the suit in manner hereinafter mentioned, it shall be lawful for the Court to award to the plaintiff, in addition to the amount decreed for rent and costs, such damages, not exceeding twenty-five per cent. on the amount of rent decreed, as the Court may think fit.

These damages, if awarded, as well as the amount of rent and costs decreed in the suit, shall carry interest at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum from the date of decree until payment thereof, and shall be recoverable from the defendant in like manner as sums decreed to be paid by defendants under Act X of 1859 are recoverable.

Court may award to defendant compensation not exceeding 25 per cent. on amount improperly sued for.

3. In any suit hereafter to be brought for rent under Act X of 1859, if it shall appear to the Court that the plaintiff has instituted the suit against the defendant without reasonable or probable cause, or that the defendant before the institution of the suit duly deposited with the Collector in the manner hereinafter mentioned the full amount which the Court shall find to have been due to the plaintiff at the date of such deposit, it shall be lawful for the Court to award to the defendant by way of compensation such sum, not exceeding twenty-five per cent. on the whole amount claimed by the plaintiff, as the Court may think fit, and such sum, with interest at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum until payment thereof, shall be recoverable from the plaintiff in like manner as sums decreed to be paid by defendants under Act X of 1859 are recoverable.

Under-tenant or raiyat may, after tender, pay into Court, without suit brought, what he admits to be due to zamindár, &c.

Payment into Court to have effect of payment to zamindár or person entitled.

4. If any under-tenant or raiyat shall, at the mál kachahrí for the receipt of rents or other place where the rents of the land held or cultivated by him are usually payable, tender payment<sup>a</sup> of what he shall consider to be the full amount of rent due from him at the date of the tender to the zamindár or other person in receipt of the rent of such land, and if the amount so tendered shall not be accepted, and a receipt in full forthwith granted, it shall be lawful for the under-tenant or raiyat, without any suit having been instituted against him, to deposit such amount in the Collector's Court, to the credit of the zamindár or other person aforesaid : and such deposit shall, so far as the under-tenant or raiyat and all persons claiming through or under him are concerned, in all respects operate as and have the full effect of a payment then made by the under-tenant or raiyat, of the amount deposited, to such zamindár or other person.

Proceedings on payment into Court.

5. The Collector shall receive such deposit on the application of the under-tenant or raiyat, or his agent, made in writing, and on the under-tenant or raiyat, or his agent, making a declaration in the form, or as nearly as circumstances will admit in the form, set forth in the schedule (A) hereto annexed, and the Collector shall give a receipt for the same.

If the declaration shall contain any averment which the person making the declaration shall know or believe to be false or shall not know or believe to be true, such person shall be subject to punishment according to the law for the time being in force for the punishment of giving or fabricating false evidence.

Upon receiving the money so deposited, the Collector shall issue a notice to the person to whose credit it has been deposited, in the form set forth in the schedule (B) hereto annexed, and such notice shall be served by the Collector, without the payment of any fee, either upon the person to whom it is addressed or upon his náib, gumáshta or other agent, and in the absence of any such agent, it shall be served by sticking up a copy of the same in the office of the Collector, and another copy at the mál kachahri for the receipt of rents or other place where the rents are usually paid for the land in respect of which the money has been deposited.

If the person to whom such notice is issued, or his duly authorized agent, shall appear and apply that the money in deposit be paid to him, it shall be immediately made over to him. Payment to creditor.

6. Whenever a deposit shall have been made under the provisions of this Act, no suit shall be brought against the person making the deposit or his representatives on account of any rent which accrued due prior to the date of the deposit, unless such suit is instituted within six months from the date of the service of the notice in the fifth section of this Act mentioned. Limitation of suit for further balance

7. The defendant in any suit under this Act or under Act X of 1859 instituted after the passing of this Act may, if he have duly tendered the same to the plaintiff before the institution of the suit, pay into Court such sum of money as he shall consider to be due to the plaintiff without paying in any costs incurred by the plaintiff up to the time of such payment, and such sum shall be immediately paid out of Court to the plaintiff. After suit brought defendant may pay into Court, without costs, money tendered before.

If after such payment the plaintiff elects to proceed in the suit and ultimately recovers no further sum than shall have been paid into Court, the plaintiff shall be charged with the whole costs of the suit incurred by the defendant; but if the plaintiff ultimately recovers a further sum than shall have been paid into Court, the defendant shall be charged with the whole costs of the suit. Costs if plaintiff goes on and recovers no more.

8. sion of any public embankment, and it is necessary to acquire land for the purpose of such construction, alteration or extension, it shall be lawful for such Collector to charge the cost of such land and the expense attending its acquisition upon the persons so deriving such benefit, in such proportions as in his opinion shall be equivalent to the benefit derived by their lands respectively.

Before assessing such contribution, the Collector shall cause a notice to be served on each of such persons, in which it shall be stated what land is being taken, and the purpose for which it is required, and that the lands of such person will derive benefit from the execution of the works, and giving him notice that an inquiry will be held, at a day and place to be named, for the purpose of apportioning amongst the persons whose lands will be benefited by the intended works, the cost of the land and the expense of acquiring it.

In case such person does not reside within the district in which his lands are situate, the notice may be served upon his agent, or if he has no agent therein, it will be sufficient to affix the notice upon some conspicuous part of his estate.

Mode of inquiry as to proportion chargeable to each estate.

3. On the day fixed in the notice, which shall not be less than one month later than the date of service of such notice, the Collector shall proceed to make the necessary inquiry for the determination of the proportion in which the estates affected by the construction, extension or alteration of the embankment will be benefited thereby.

In making this inquiry he shall receive such evidence as may be tendered by or on behalf of the owners of estates which may appear likely to be benefited by the construction, extension or alteration of the embankment as aforesaid, and by and on behalf of any other persons who may claim to be interested in the said inquiry, and he may make or cause to be made such local investigation, and call for such documents, and examine such witnesses, as he may think necessary; and all the provisions of the law for the time being in force in regard to the examination of witnesses and production of documents in judicial proceedings, shall be applicable to inquiries conducted by the Collector under this Act.

But it shall be competent to the owner of any land assessed to a larger amount than his fair proportion, to recover such excess in the civil Court, from the owner of any land or estate benefited thereby upon whom no assessment has been made or a smaller amount has been assessed than ought to have been awarded against him :

but one owner may recover from another not assessed or under-assessed.

Provided that in such suit no more shall be recovered from any person than the amount to which he ought to have been assessed where he has not been required to contribute, or the amount by which the sum he was required to pay was less than his fair proportion where he has been required to contribute.

5. Expenses included in cost of acquiring land.

The amount so awarded shall and may be recovered from the person so required to pay the same, in the same way and by the same means as arrears of Government revenue.

Expense of sluice apportioned where lands of different owners benefited.

Provided, nevertheless, that notice in writing shall be served on all such persons, stating that it is proposed to make such sluice, the probable expense thereof, and that an inquiry will be held at a place and hour specified, for the purpose of apportioning the expense of such construction among the persons to be benefited thereby, and that such person is supposed to be likely to be benefited thereby.

And such notice may be served, and such inquiry shall be held, and such award shall be made, subject to the same rules, powers and provisos in all respects as is hereinbefore provided in the case of the apportionment of the cost of land required for embankments.

Provided that it shall not be competent to the Collector to sell in the manner aforesaid any land which shall not have been taken up for embankment-purposes under the provisions of this Act.

Collector may

Deputy Col-

8. A Collector may delegate any of his powers under this Act to a Deputy Collector, but from any order passed by a Deputy Collector to whom powers have been so delegated, an appeal shall lie to the Collector, if presented within fifteen days of the date of the order.

Act does not apply where obligation to

62. If the sum due under the decree, together with interest to date of payment, and all costs of process be paid into Court at any time before the sale commences, whether by the defaulting holder of the under-tenure or any one on his behalf, or any one interested in the protection of the under-tenure, such sale shall not take place: and the provisions of section 13 of Regulation VIII of 1819,<sup>a</sup> for the recovery of sums paid by persons other than the defaulting holder of the under-tenure to stay the sale of the under-tenure, shall be applicable to all similar payments made under this section.

63. If after attachment and before sale of any such under-tenure as aforesaid in execution of a decree for arrears of rent due in respect of such under-tenure, any third party may prefer a claim alleging that such third party and not the person against whom the decree has been obtained is the proprietor and to adjudicate upon claim, upon decree being paid or secured.

Provided always that no transfer of an under-tenure which, by the provisions of this Act or any other law for the time being in force, is required to be registered in the sharishtá of the zamíndár or superior tenant, shall be recognized unless it has been so registered, or unless sufficient cause for non-registration be shewn to the satisfaction of the Court.

Unregistered transfers not recognized.

64. If a decree is given in favour of a sharer in a joint undivided estate, dependent taluq or other similar tenure, for money due to him on account of his share of the rent of an under-tenure situate in such undivided estate, taluq or tenure, no order for the sale of such under-tenure in execution of such decree shall be made unless and until all moveable property (if any) which such judgment-debtor may possess within the jurisdiction of the Court in which the suit was instituted, shall have been seized and sold in execution of such decree, and the sale of such property, if any, shall have proved insufficient to satisfy the judgment.

Execution of decrees in favour of sharers in undivided estates or tenures.

In such case such under-tenure, if of the nature described in section 59 may be seized and sold in execution of such decree, according to the ordinary procedure of the Court and not in the manner provided in the said section, and every such sale shall have such and the same effect as the sale of any immoveable property sold in execution of a decree not being for arrears of rent payable in respect thereof.

65. In the execution of any decree for the payment of any money under this Act, not being money due as arrears of rent of a saleable under-tenure, if satisfaction of the judgment cannot be obtained by execution against the person or moveable property of the debtor within the district in which the suit was instituted, the judgment-creditor may apply for execution against any immoveable property belonging to such debtor.

When judgment-creditor may apply for execution against immoveable property.

66. The purchaser of an under-tenure under the provisions of sections 59 and 60 of this Act shall acquire it free of all incumbrances which may have accrued thereon by any act of any holder of the said under-tenure, his representatives or assignees, unless the right of making such incumbrances shall have been expressly vested in the holder by the written engagement under which the under-tenure was created, or by the subsequent written authority of the person who created it, his representatives or assignees, provided that nothing herein contained shall be held to entitle the purchaser to eject khúdkásht raiyats or resident and hereditary cultivators, nor to cancel bond fide engagements made with raiyats or cultivators of the classes aforesaid by any holder of the under-tenure or his representatives, except it be proved in a regular suit to be brought by such purchaser for the adjustment of his rent, that a higher rent would have been demandable at the time such engagements were contracted by his predecessor.

Purchaser to acquire under-tenure, with certain exceptions, free of incumbrances.

Nothing in this section shall be held to apply to the purchase of a tenure by the previous holder thereof through whose default the tenure was brought to sale.

Zamíndár how to proceed if purchaser do not register.

67. The purchaser of an under-tenure sold under this Act shall apply to the zamíndár or other landholder within fifteen days from the day of sale to have his name registered in the zamíndár or other landholder's books as the purchaser, and shall execute a kabúliyat on the same terms and conditions on which the under-tenure was held by the defaulter; and if such application be not made within fifteen days, it shall be lawful for the zamíndár or other landholder to sue the said purchaser for the delivery of a kabúliyat.

Produce of land held hypothecated for rent.

68. The produce of the land is held to be hypothecated for the rent payable in respect thereof; and when an arrear of rent, as defined in section 21 of this Act, is due from any cultivator of land, the zamíndár, lákhirájdár, farmer, dependent taluqdár, under-farmer or other person entitled to receive the rent of such land immediately from the actual cultivator thereof, instead of bringing suit for the arrear as hereinbefore provided, may recover the same by distraint and sale of the produce of the land on account of which the arrear is due, under the following rules.

Recovery of arrears of rent by distraint.

Cultivators who have given security exempt from distraint.

Provided always that, when a cultivator has given security for the payment of his rent, the produce of the land for the rent of which security has been given shall not be liable to distraint.

Proviso.

Provided also that no sharer in a joint estate, dependent taluq or other tenure in which a division of lands has not been made amongst the sharers, shall exercise the power of distraint otherwise than through a manager authorized to collect the rents of the whole estate, taluq or tenure on behalf of all the sharers in the same.

No distraint in certain cases.

69. Distraint shall not be made for any arrear which has been due for a longer period than one year; nor for the recovery of any sum in excess of the rent payable for the same land in the preceding year, unless a written engagement for the payment of such excess has been executed by the cultivator.

Power of distraint exercised by managers under Court of Wards, &c.

70. The power of distraint vested by section 68 in zamíndárs and other persons entitled to receive rent from cultivators of land, may be exercised by managers under the Court of Wards, sarbaráhkárs and tahsildárs of estates held under khás management, and other persons lawfully entrusted with the charge of landed property; and also by náibs, gumáshtas and other agents employed by any such persons as aforesaid in the collection of rent, if expressly authorized by power-of-attorney in that behalf.

Provided that if any illegal act is committed by any such náib, gumáshta or other agent under colour of the exercise of the said power, the person employing such agent shall be liable, as well as the agent, for any damages accruing by reason of such act. Proviso.

71. Standing crops and other ungathered products of the earth, and crops or other products when reaped or gathered and deposited in any threshing-floor or place for treading out grain or the like, whether in the field or within a homestead, may be distrained by persons invested with the powers of distraint under the provisions of this Act. Standing crops and crops gathered, but not stored, liable to distraint.

* But no such crops or products other than the produce of the land in respect of which an arrear of rent is due, or of land held under the same engagement, and no grain or other produce after it has been stored by the cultivator, and no other property whatsoever, shall be liable to distraint under this Act.

72. Before or at the time when distraint is made under this Act, the distrainer shall cause the defaulter to be served with a written demand for the amount of the arrear, together with an account exhibiting the grounds on which the demand is made. Defaulter to be served with written demand, &c., before or at time of distraint.

The demand and account shall, if practicable, be served personally on the defaulter, or if he abscond or conceal himself so that they cannot be so served, shall be affixed at his usual place of residence.

73. Unless the amount of the demand is immediately paid or tendered, the distrainer may distrain property as aforesaid of value proportionate to the amount of the arrear with costs of the distress; and shall prepare a list or description of the said property, and deliver a copy of the same to the owner, or if he be absent affix it at his usual place of residence. Distress proportionate to arrear if not paid or tendered.

74. Standing crops and other ungathered products may, notwithstanding the distraint, be reaped and gathered by the cultivator, and may be stored in such granaries or other places as are commonly used by him for the purpose. Standing crops, &c., when attached, to be reaped and stored by cultivator, or, if he neglect to do so, by distrainer.

If the cultivator neglect to do so, the distrainer shall cause the said crops or products to be reaped or gathered, and in such case shall store the same either in such granaries or other places as aforesaid, or in some other convenient place in the neighbourhood.

In either case the distrained property shall be placed in the charge of some person appointed by the distrainer for the purpose.

Crops or products which from their nature do not admit of being stored, may be sold before they are cut or gathered, under the rules hereinafter provided; but in such case the distraint shall be made at least twenty days before the time when the crops or products or any part of the same would be fit for cutting or gathering.

Distrainer may apply for aid to Court upon resistance made or apprehended.

75. If a distrainer shall be opposed or shall apprehend resistance, and shall desire to obtain the assistance of a public officer, he may apply to the Court which under the provisions of this Act would have jurisdiction to entertain a suit for the rent for which such distrainer is about to distrain, and the Court may, if it thinks necessary, depute an officer to support the distrainer in making the distraint.

Authority to be given to servant employed to distrain.

76. When any person empowered to distrain property under section 68 or section 70 shall employ a servant or other person to make the distress, he shall give to such servant or person a written authority for the same, and the distress shall be made in the name and on the responsibility of the person giving such authority.

Distress to be withdrawn on tender of arrear and expenses prior to day of sale.

77. If at any time after property has been distrained, and prior to the day fixed for its being put up to sale as hereinafter provided, the owner of the property shall tender payment of the arrear demanded of him and of the expenses of the distress, the distrainer shall receive the same, and shall forthwith withdraw the distress.

Application for sale.

78. Within five days from the time of the storing of any distrained crops or products, or if the crops or products do not, from their nature, admit of being stored, within five days from the time of making the distress, the distrainer shall apply for sale of the same to the Court which would have jurisdiction to entertain a suit for the rent for which the distress was made.

Form of application.

79. The application shall be in writing and shall contain an inventory or description of the property distrained, the name of the defaulter and his place of residence, the amount due and the date of the distress, and the place in which the distrained property is deposited.

Cost of notice upon defaulter to be deposited by distrainer.

Together with the application, the distrainer shall lodge in Court the amount necessary for the service of a notice upon the defaulter as hereinafter provided.

Procedure by civil Court on receipt of application.

80. Immediately on receipt of any application under the provisions of the next preceding section, the Court to which such application shall have been made shall appoint an officer to conduct the sale of such property, and shall cause to be served a notice (which shall be in the form contained in the schedule (C) to this Act or to the like effect) on the person whose property has been distrained, requiring him either to pay the amount demanded, or to institute a suit to contest the demand before such Court within the period of fifteen days from the receipt of the notice; and shall at the same time cause to be affixed upon some conspicuous place in the Court-house, a proclamation fixing a day for the sale of the distrained property, which shall not be less than twenty days from the date of the application; and shall deliver a copy of the proclamation to the peon charged with the service of the notice, to be put up by him in the place where the distrained property is deposited.

The proclamation shall contain a description of the property, the demand for which it is to be sold and the place where the sale is to be held.

81. If a suit shall be instituted in pursuance of the aforesaid notice, the Court shall suspend proceedings in regard to the sale of the distrained property, and shall certify to the officer appointed to conduct the sale of such suspension.

Sale to be suspended when suit instituted.

82. Any person whose property has been distrained in the manner in this Act provided, may institute a suit to contest the demand of the distrainer immediately after the distraint of his property, and before the issue of notice of sale; when such suit is instituted, the Court shall suspend proceedings in respect of the sale of such property.

Suit to contest distrainer's demand before issue of notice of sale.

83. The person whose property has been distrained may, at the time of instituting any such suit as aforesaid or at any subsequent period, execute a bond with sufficient security, binding himself and his sureties to pay whatever sum may be adjudged to be due from him with interest and costs of suit; and when such bond is executed, the Court shall give to the owner of the property a certificate to that effect, or, if so requested, shall serve the distrainer with notice of the same, and upon such certificate being presented to the distrainer by the owner of the property, or served on him by order of the Court, the property shall be released from distraint.

Distress to be withdrawn on receipt of certificate that owner has executed bond to pay decree with interest and costs.

84. The estimated value of the claim made in any suit filed under the provisions of sections 80, 82 and 96, or any of them, shall be deemed to be the amount of arrears of rent for which the distraint shall have been made.

Value of claim in suits disputing distress.

85. On the expiration of the period fixed in the proclamation of sale, if a suit to contest the demand of the distrainer be not in the meantime instituted in the Court and certified to the officer appointed to conduct the sale, such officer shall, unless the said demand, with such costs of the distress as shall be allowed by him, be discharged in full, proceed to sell the property or such part of it as may be necessary, in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

On expiration of period fixed in proclamation of sale, if institution of suit to contest distrainer's demand not certified, sale may proceed.

86. The sale shall be held at the place where the distrained property is deposited, or at the nearest ganj, bázár, hát or other place of public resort, if the officer appointed to conduct the sale should be of opinion that it is likely to sell there to better advantage.

Place and manner of sale of distrained property.

The property shall be sold by public auction in one or more lots as such officer holding the sale may think advisable; and if the demand with the costs of distress and sale be satisfied by the sale of a portion of the property, the distress shall be immediately withdrawn with respect to the remainder.

If fair price be not offered, sale may be postponed, and shall be then completed at whatever price offered.

Payment of purchase-money.

87. If on the property being put up for sale a fair price in the estimation of the officer holding the sale be not offered for it, and the owner of the property or some person authorized to act on his behalf apply to have the sale postponed until the next day or the next market-day if a market be held at the place of sale, the sale shall be postponed until such day, and shall be then completed, whatever price may be offered for the property.

88. The price of every lot shall be paid for in ready money at the time of sale or as soon after as the officer holding the sale shall think necessary; and in default of such payment the property shall be put up again and sold.

When the purchase-money has been paid in full, the officer holding the sale shall give the purchaser a certificate describing the property purchased by him and the price paid.

Proceeds of sale.

89. From the proceeds of the sale of distrained property, the officer holding the sale shall make a deduction at the rate of one anna in the rupee on account of the costs of the sale, and shall transmit the amount to the Court in order that it may be credited to Government.

He shall then pay to the distrainer the expenses incurred by the distrainer on account of the distress and of the issue of the notice and proclamation of sale prescribed in section 80, to such amount as, after examination of the statement of expenses furnished by the distrainer, he shall think proper to allow.

The remainder shall be applied to the discharge of the arrear for which the distraint was made, with interest thereupon up to the day of sale; and if there be any overplus, it shall be delivered to the person whose property shall have been sold.

Officers holding sales prohibited from purchasing.

90. Officers holding sales of property under this Act, and all persons employed by or subordinate to such officers, are prohibited from purchasing, either directly or indirectly, any property sold by such officers.

Irregularities to be reported to Court.

91. Officers holding sales of distrained property are required to bring to the notice of the Court any material irregularities committed by distrainers under colour of this Act; and if in any case, on proceeding to hold a sale of property, such officer shall find that the owner of the property has not received due notice of the distress and intended sale, he shall postpone the sale and report the case to the Court, and the Court shall direct the issue of another notice and proclamation of sale under section 80, or pass such other order as may seem proper.

Recovery of expenses if officer proceed to place of sale and no sale take place.

92. When any such officer has proceeded to any place for the purpose of holding a sale and no sale takes place either for the reason stated in the last preceding section or because the demand of the distrainer has been previously satisfied, no intimation of such satisfaction having been given by the distrainer to such officer, the charge of one anna in the rupee on account of expenses shall be leviable and shall be calculated on the estimated value of the distrained property.

If the demand of the distrainer be not satisfied until the day fixed for the sale, the charge for expenses shall be paid by the owner of the property and may be recovered by the sale of such portion thereof as may be necessary.

In all other cases the Court shall make an order that such expenses shall be paid by the distrainer, and shall in such order fix the amount to be paid by him; such amount not to exceed the sum of ten rupees; and the amount by such order directed to be paid may be recovered from such distrainer as if such order were a decree of such Court.

93. All proceedings under this Act of the officers appointed to hold sales of distrained property shall be subject to the revision and orders of the Court to which they respectively are attached, and the Court may require the submission of such reports and statements of business performed by such officers as may be thought necessary.

Proceedings of officers, &c., subject to revision and orders of Court.

94. When a suit has been instituted to contest the demand of a distrainer and the property has not been released on security, if the demand or any portion of it shall be adjudged to be due, the Court shall issue an order to the officer appointed to conduct the sale of such property and furnish a copy of such order to the distrainer authorizing the sale of the property; and on the application of the distrainer, which shall be made within five days from the receipt by him of such copy of such order, such officer shall publish a second proclamation in the manner prescribed in section 80, fixing another day for the sale of the distrained property, which shall not be less than five nor more than ten days from the date of the proclamation; and unless the amount adjudged to be due with the costs of distress, including any costs of suit which may be ordered to be paid by the person instituting such suit, be paid immediately, shall proceed to sell the property in the manner hereinbefore provided.

Second proclamation of sale.

95. In all suits instituted to contest the demand of a distrainer, the distrainer shall be required to prove the arrear in the same manner as if he had himself instituted a suit for the amount.

Procedure after institution of suit to contest distrainer's demand.

If the demand or any part thereof is found to be due, the Court shall make a decree for the amount in favour of the distrainer, together with such costs of suit as to such Court may seem proper, and the amount may be recovered by sale of the property as provided in the last preceding section if the distress has not been withdrawn, and if any balance remain due after such sale, by execution of the decree against the person and any other property of the defaulter, or if the property has been released on security, by execution of the decree against the person and property of the defaulter and of his surety.

If, on the other hand, the distraint is adjudged to be vexatious or groundless, the Court, besides directing the release of the distrained property, may award such damages in favour of the plaintiff as the circumstances of the case shall seem to require, and may decree the costs of the suit to be paid by the distrainer.

Owner of property distrained for arrears of rent alleged to be due from another, may institute suit against distrainer.

96. If any person shall claim, as his own, property which has been distrained for arrears of rent alleged to be due from any other person, such person may institute a suit against the distrainer and such other person to try the right to the possession of the property in such Court, and in like manner and under the same conditions as to the time of instituting the suit and to the consequent postponement of sale, as a person whose property has been distrained for an arrear of rent alleged to be due from him may institute a suit to contest the demand.

When any such suit is instituted, the property may be released upon security being given for the value of the same.

If the claim is dismissed, the Court shall make an order for the sale of the property or the recovery of the value thereof, as the case may be, for the benefit of the distrainer, and for payment of such costs of suit to such distrainer, as to such Court shall seem fit.

If the claim is upheld, the Court shall decree the release of the distrained property with costs, and such damages (if any) as the circumstances of the case may seem to require.

Provided always that no claim to any produce of land liable to distraint under this Act, which at the time of the distress may have been found in the possession of a defaulting cultivator, whether such claim be in respect of a previous sale, mortgage or otherwise, shall bar the prior claim of the person entitled to the rent of the land; nor shall any attachment in execution of a judgment or decree of any Court prevail against such prior claim.

Persons prevented from suing in time to have property from sale, may sue for damages.

97. If any person, whose property has been distrained for the recovery of a demand not justly due, or of a demand due or alleged to be due from some other person, is prevented by any sufficient cause from bringing a suit to contest the demand or to try the right to the property, as the case may be, within the period allowed by sections 82 and 96, and his property is in consequence brought to sale, he may nevertheless institute a suit under this Act to recover damages for the illegal distress and sale of his property.

98. If any person empowered to distrain property or employed for the purpose under a written authority by a person so empowered, shall distrain or sell, or cause to be sold, any property for the recovery of an arrear of rent alleged to be due otherwise than according to the provisions of this Act, or if any distrained property shall be lost, damaged or destroyed by reason of the distrain not having taken proper precautions for the due keeping and preservation thereof, or if the distraint shall not be immediately withdrawn when it is required to be withdrawn by any provision of this Act, the owner of the property may institute a suit under this Act to recover damages for any injury which he may have thereby sustained.

99. If any person not empowered to distrain property under sections 68 and 70 of this Act, nor employed for the purpose under a written authority by a person so empowered, shall under colour of this Act distrain or sell or cause to be sold any property, the owner of the property may institute a suit under this Act to recover damages from such person for any injury which he may have sustained from the distraint or sale.

distrain.

The said person shall, when the act complained of does not amount to criminal trespass, be liable to fine which may extend to three hundred rupees, or to imprisonment, simple or rigorous, which may extend to two months, or to both, in addition to any damages which may be awarded against him in such suit.

100. Provided always that any suit which may be instituted under any of the last three sections shall be commenced within three months from the date of the occurrence of the cause of action.

Time for commencing suits
for damages.

101. If any person shall resist a distraint of property duly made under this Act, or shall forcibly or clandestinely remove any distrained property, the Court which would have jurisdiction in a suit for the rent for which such distraint was made, shall, upon complaint being made within fifteen days from the date of such resistance or removal, cause the person accused to be arrested; and if the offence be proved, and the offender be the owner of the property, shall order him to be imprisoned in the civil jail for six months, or until the whole arrear due to the distrainer, with all expenses and costs, shall be paid or levied by attachment and sale of the property of the offender under warrant of the Court.

Procedure on resistance to distrain, &c.

If the person convicted of the offence be any other than the owner of the property, he shall make good to the distrainer the value of the same, and shall further be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or, in default of payment thereof, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two months.

102. Nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to confer any power of appeal in any suit tried and decided by a district Judge, originally or in appeal, if the amount sued for, or the value of the property claimed, does not exceed one hundred rupees, in which suit a question of right to enhance or vary the rent of a raiyat or tenant, or any question relating to a title to land or to some interest in land as between parties having conflicting claims thereto, has not been determined by the judgment.<sup>a</sup>

Court not to have jurisdic-

free of charge.

105. If in any case the Court is satisfied that a party is unable to pay the cost of any necessary process in any suit under this Act, it may direct such process to be served free of charge.

of Act.

106. This Act shall take effect in those districts in the Provinces subject to the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal to which the said Lieutenant-Governor shall extend it by an order published in the Calcutta Gazette, and thereupon this Act shall commence and take effect in the districts named in such order at the day and time which shall be in such order provided for the commencement thereof.<sup>a</sup> levied.

65. The Commissioners shall frame a scale of tolls, dues, rates and charges for the landing and shipment of goods from and into sea-going vessels at the wharves, quays, stages, jetties and piers erected under this Act, and for the use thereof by such vessels, and for the storing and keeping of any goods stored in any premises belonging to them, and for the removal of goods and for the use of any moorings laid down or acquired under the provisions of this Act or of Act X of 1866,<sup>a</sup> or of Act IV of 1869,<sup>b</sup> respectively passed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal in Council.

And also a scale of tolls, dues and rates for the landing and shipment of goods into, and out of, any vessel (not being a sea-going vessel), and also a scale of tolls for the use of the said wharves, quays, moorings, stages, jetties and piers by any such vessel, in case the Commissioners shall permit the goods to be landed or shipped by others than their own officers and servants, and also a scale of charges for any services to be performed by the Commissioners or their servants in respect of any vessel or goods, or for the use of any works or appliances to be provided by the Commissioners.

Such scale of tolls, dues, rates and charges shall be adopted by a resolution of the Commissioners at a meeting, and shall be submitted to the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and, after receiving his approval, shall be published by the Commissioners in the Calcutta Gazette, and may from time to time, subject to the like approval and publication, be in like manner altered.

66. If on the preparation of the estimate of any year, it shall appear that the estimated income of the Commissioners for such year, after deducting therefrom the estimated expenditure of such year to be incurred under this Act, will be insufficient for the payment of the sums which under the provisions of this Act will be payable during such year to the Secretary of State for India in Council, or if at any time in the course of a year it may appear that the actual income of such portion of the year as may have then elapsed and the estimated income of the residue of such year, after deducting therefrom the actual expenditure of such past portion and the estimated expenditure of such residue, will be so insufficient, then and in every such case, the Commissioners shall, upon the requisition in writing of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, from time to time, and to the extent requisite in every case, charge upon all goods landed from, or shipped into, any vessel lying or being within the limits of the port, whether such goods shall or shall not be so landed or shipped at any wharf, quay, stage, jetty or pier belonging to the Commissioners, such tolls, dues, rates and charges, in addition to or other than those prescribed by any scale of tolls, dues, rates and charges for the time being in force under the provisions of section 65, as will, when added to the said income of the year, suffice, as nearly as may be, for the payment of the said sums in full.

Power to impose rates on goods to provide for payment of debt.

Such tolls, dues, rates and charges shall be fixed and adopted by a resolution of the Commissioners at a meeting, and shall be submitted to the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and if the same shall be approved by him shall be published in the Calcutta Gazette and shall forthwith come into operation and remain in operation until altered or revoked by the Commissioners at a meeting with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and shall be leviable and recoverable in like manner as any other tolls, dues, rates and charges payable under this Act.

On failure of Commissioners, Lieutenant-Governor may impose rates.

67. In case the Commissioners shall for fifteen days after the receipt by them of any such requisition from the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal as in section 66 is mentioned, neglect or refuse to charge such tolls, dues, rates and charges, it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, by an order published in the Calcutta Gazette, to charge such tolls, dues, rates and charges, and the tolls, dues, rates and charges mentioned in such order shall have such and the same effect as if they had been fixed and adopted by the Commissioners at a meeting and approved by the Lieutenant-Governor and published in the Calcutta Gazette as in section 66 is mentioned.

Recovery of tolls in arrear.

68. For the amount of all tolls, charges, dues and rates duly leviable under this Act in respect of any goods, the Commissioners shall have a lien on such goods, and shall be entitled to seize and detain the same until such tolls, rates and dues are fully paid.

Tolls, rates and dues in respect of goods to be landed shall become payable immediately on the landing of the goods.

Tolls, rates and dues in respect of goods to be removed from the premises of the Commissioners, or to be shipped for export, shall be payable before the goods are removed or shipped.

The lien for such tolls, rates and dues shall have priority over all other liens and claims, except for general average, for the ship-owner's lien for freight upon the said goods where such lien exists and has been preserved in the manner hereinafter provided, for primage, and for money payable to Her Majesty or the Secretary of State for India in Council under any law for the time being in force.

Provided that nothing in this Act shall affect any power or authority vested in the chief officer of customs under any law for the time being in force.

Goods may be removed to public warehouses.

69. In any case in which goods, without any default on the part of the Commissioners, shall have been left for two days on or in any wharf or shed belonging to the Commissioners, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to remove such goods, or cause the same to be removed, either to any warehouse belonging to them, or, with the consent of the chief officer of customs, to the public warehouses, and the removal to and detention in any such warehouse shall be at the risk and expense of the owners of the said goods.

Whenever any goods shall be so removed, the Commissioners shall give notice to the consignee or owner of such goods of such removal, if his address be known, by letter sent by post to such address or left thereat, and shall also publish in the Calcutta Gazette notice of such removal, and shall specify therein the numbers, marks and descriptions of such goods so far as the same appear, and the consignee or owner of such goods, in addition to the expenses of the removal of the same, shall be liable, in case the goods shall be removed to any warehouse or store of the Commissioners, to a charge for warehousing for the time during which the goods shall remain in the said warehouse.

In case the said goods shall be removed to the public warehouses, then the said consignee or owner shall be liable to the charges for warehousing goods in such public warehouses, and the said goods shall remain subject to all liens to which they would have been liable if they had remained in the possession of the Commissioners, and to the power of sale hereinafter given.

70. If the master or owner of any vessel or his agent, at or before the time of landing from such vessel any goods at any wharf, quay, stage, jetty or pier erected under this Act, shall give to the Commissioners notice in writing that such goods are to remain subject to a lien for freight or other charges payable to the ship-owner to an amount to be mentioned in such notice, such goods shall continue liable to the same lien, if any, for such charges, as they were subject to before the landing thereof.

Lien for freight preserved after landing of goods if notice of lien be given.

Such goods shall be retained either in the warehouses and sheds of the Commissioners, or, with the consent of the chief officer of customs, in the public warehouses, at the risk and expense of the owners of the said goods, until the lien is discharged as hereinafter mentioned.

71. Upon the production to the officer of the Commissioners in that behalf of a document purporting to be a receipt for the amount claimed as due, or a release of freight from the person by or on whose behalf such notice shall have been given, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to permit such goods to be removed without regard to such lien, provided they shall have used reasonable care in respect to the authenticity of such document.

Discharge of lien by payment or release.

72. If the tolls, rates and dues payable to the Commissioners in respect of any goods under this Act are not paid, or if the lien of the ship-owner for freight where such notice as aforesaid has been given is not discharged, the Commissioners may, and in the latter event if required by or on behalf of the person claiming such lien for freight shall, at the expiration of two months from the time when the goods were placed in their custody, or if the goods are of a perishable nature at such earlier period, being not less than twenty-four hours after the landing of the goods, as they shall think fit, sell by public auction the said goods, or so much as may be necessary to satisfy the amounts hereinafter directed to be paid out of the produce of such sale.

If tolls not paid, or lien for freight not discharged, goods may be sold after expiration of two months.

Before making such sale, ten days' notice of the same shall be given by publication thereof in the Calcutta Gazette, unless the goods are of so perishable a nature as in the opinion of the officer of the Commissioners in that behalf to render immediate sale necessary or advisable, in which event such notice shall be given as the urgency of the case admits of.

If the address of the owner of the goods has been stated on the manifest of the cargo, or in any of the documents which have come into the hands of the Commissioners, or is otherwise known, notice shall also be given to the owner of the goods by letter delivered at such address or sent by the post: but the title of a bonâ fide purchaser of such goods shall not be invalidated by reason of the omission to send the notice hereinbefore mentioned, nor shall any such purchaser be bound to inquire whether such notice has been sent.

Application of proceeds of sale.

73. In every case of any such sale as aforesaid, the moneys received from the sale shall be applied as follows:—

1st,—in payment of the expenses of the sale:

2ndly,—in payment according to their respective priorities of the liens and claims excepted in section 68 from the priority of the liens of the Commissioners for tolls, rates and dues:

3rdly,—in payment of the tolls, charges and expenses of landing, removing, storing or warehousing the same, and of all other charges due to the Commissioners under this Act in respect thereof.

The surplus, if any, shall be paid to the importer, owner or consignee of the goods, or to his agent, on his applying for the same; provided such application be made within one year from the sale of the goods, or good reason be shewn why such application was not so made to the satisfaction of the Commissioners; and in case such application shall not be so made, nor reason shewn, such surplus shall be held by the Commissioners upon trust for the purposes of this Act.

Power to dis-train vessels for non-payment of tolls.

74. If the master of any vessel in respect of which any tolls, dues, rates, penalties or charges shall be payable under this Act or any rules or orders made in pursuance thereof, shall refuse or neglect to pay the same or any part thereof on demand, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to apply to the Collector of customs of the port of Calcutta, and such Collector shall distrain or arrest of his own authority such vessel, and the tackle, apparel and furniture belonging thereto, or any part thereof, and detain the same until the amount so due to the Commissioners shall be paid; and in case any part of the said tolls, dues, rates, penalties or charges, or of the costs of the distress or arrestment, or of the keeping of the same, shall remain unpaid for the space of five days next after any such distress or arrestment shall have been so made, the Collector of customs may cause the vessel or other thing so distrained or arrested to be sold, and with the proceeds of such sale may satisfy such tolls, dues, rates, penalties or charges and costs, including the costs of sale, remaining unpaid, rendering the surplus (if any) to the master of such vessel on demand.

75. If the Commissioners shall give to the officer of Government whose duty it shall be to grant the port-clearance of any vessel, a notice stating that an amount therein specified is due in respect of tolls, dues, rates or charges, or penalties chargeable, under this Act or any bye-laws, rules or orders made in pursuance thereof, against such vessel or the owner or master of such vessel in respect thereof, or against or in respect of any goods on board such vessel, such officer shall not grant such port-clearance until the amount so chargeable shall have been paid.

Port-clearance not to be granted till tolls paid.

76. In case any damage or mischief shall be done to any wharves, quays, jetties, piers or works constructed or acquired by the Commissioners under the provisions of this Act, by any vessel, through the negligence of any person having the guidance or command thereof, or of any of the mariners or persons employed therein, it shall be lawful for any Magistrate of the town of Calcutta, on the application of the Commissioners, to issue a summons to the master of, or agent for, such vessel requiring him to attend on a day and at an hour named in the summons to answer touching such damage or mischief.

Compensation for damage to property of Commissioners.

If at the time appointed in the summons, and whether the person summoned shall appear or not, it shall be made out to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that the alleged damage was done through such negligence as aforesaid, and that the pecuniary amount of the same does not exceed two hundred rupees, it shall be lawful for the Magistrate to issue his warrant of distress under which a sufficient portion of the boats, masts, spars, ropes, cables, anchors or stores of the vessel may be seized and sold to cover the expenses of and attending the execution of the distress and the pecuniary amount of damage as aforesaid, and such amount shall be paid to the Commissioners out of the proceeds of the distress.

them to be prepared.

Procedure when objection is stated.

13. Whenever any person, having failed to sign the maps and papers, or to give in his objections in writing within the time prescribed by the notification or by the special notice mentioned in the last preceding section, shall, at any time before the Collector has finally confirmed the boundaries for the purposes of the survey, prefer any subsequent objection against the correctness of any maps or papers in respect of which such notification or notice was issued, the Collector shall require him to deposit the estimated costs of any further inquiry which it may be necessary to make in respect of his objection; and if the said person shall fail to deposit such costs within the time specified by the Collector, he shall be deemed for all purposes of this Act to have admitted the correctness of the said maps and papers.

Person making subsequent objection may be required to deposit costs of further inquiry.

If the costs of any inquiry which may be deemed necessary be deposited, the Collector shall make such further inquiry at the expense of the person so objecting; and if the objection shall seem to the Collector not to be well-founded, he may pass such order as he shall think fit in respect of the recovery from the objector of any sum expended by the Collector on the inquiry in excess of the sum deposited, and of any necessary expenses incurred by any other persons on account of such inquiry:

Provided that no person so making an objection after the prescribed time shall, under any circumstances, be entitled to recover the expenses which he is required to deposit before any further inquiry is made in respect of such subsequent objection.

Notice to be served.

25. So soon as the provisional apportionment shall have been made as required by the last preceding section, the Collector shall cause a notice to be served on the zamindár of every estate on which the expenses have been apportioned—

- (a) specifying the sum which has been apportioned on his estate, and, as far as can be calculated, the sum which he will be required to pay on account of the service of notices on him under this section and section 29;

- (d) warning him that if he does not appear on the date fixed in pursuance of the notice he will be deemed to have waived all objections to the share of the expenses apportioned to his estate; and (unless as otherwise hereinafter provided in sections 31, 32 and 33)

- (f) and warning him that if he fails to give in a list of tenure as aforesaid on or before the said date, he will be deemed to have given up all claim to recover from the tenure-holders any part of the amount for which he may be held liable under section 26.

26. On the date fixed in such notice, the Collector shall proceed to consider all objections which may be made to the provisional apportionment, and to make such final apportionment of the expenses as shall seem to him fit. Collector to make final apportionment.

In making such final apportionment, the costs of serving all notices under section 25 shall be distributed rateably among the estates concerned, in proportion to the share of the expenses of erecting boundary-marks which may be apportioned to each estate; and the amount so finally apportioned as payable in respect of each estate, together with the costs of serving notices, rateably distributed as aforesaid, shall be due to the Collector from the zamindars of such estates.

27. Notwithstanding anything contained in the last preceding section, the Collector may postpone the final apportionment if it shall appear to him that a notice under section 25 has not been served on the zamindar of any estate which should be made liable for a portion of the expenses, or for any other sufficient reason. Collector may postpone final apportionment.

28. Any zamindar failing to appear on the date fixed in the notice served on him under section 25 will be deemed to have waived all objections to the payment of the amount apportioned to his estate, and will not be entitled to prefer any objections thereto on any subsequent date; and any zamindar failing to give in a list of tenures (when called upon under section 25 to give in such list), on or before such date, will be deemed to have given up all claim to recover from the tenure-holders any part of the amount which may have been apportioned as payable in respect of his estate under section 26. 29. So soon as the expenses shall have been finally apportioned under section 26 among the estates concerned as hereinbefore provided, the Collector shall issue a notice in respect of every estate, specifying the amount finally apportioned as payable in respect of the estate, and requiring the zamindar to pay such amount to the Collector, together with the costs of serving such notice, within one month of the issue of the notice. If such amount be not paid to the Collector within such period, the same, with interest, at such rate, not exceeding six per centum per annum, as the Lieutenant-Governor may from time to time determine, may be levied as provided in section 57. Collector to issue notice specifying amount finally apportioned.

The notice issued under this section shall assign to the zamindar, or to the zamindar jointly with tenure-holders, the boundary-marks which they are legally bound to preserve under the provisions of section 19, and in respect of which they will be held liable to pay the costs of re-erection, maintenance and repair, under the provisions of section 20.<sup>a</sup> Notice shall assign boundary-marks which zamindars are bound to preserve.

30. If the zamindár of any estate shall give in a list of tenures, as referred to in section 25, with an application to the Collector to apportion between his estate and the tenures the amount which has been apportioned as payable in respect of his estate as aforesaid, the Collector shall proceed to make a provisional apportionment of the said amount between the zamindár and the tenure-holders, to serve notices on the said tenure-holders in the manner provided in section 25, and to make a final apportionment among the said zamindár and tenure-holders in the manner provided in sections 26 and 27; and the provisions of section 28 shall be applicable to such tenure-holders:

No separate notice in respect of apportionment of sum less than two rupees.

Provided that no separate notice shall be served under this section in respect of the provisional or final apportionment of the sum payable in respect of any tenure, if such sum be less than two rupees; but in respect of all such sums it shall be sufficient to publish a list shewing the sums apportioned as payable.

Such list shall be published by being posted at the office of the subdivisional officer and at a conspicuous place in some village within which lands appertaining to the tenure are situate.

Summary apportionment between zamindár and tenure-holders.

31. Notwithstanding anything in this Part contained, whenever the Collector may consider that he has sufficient information (whether derived from papers compiled for the purposes of the road-cess, from enquiries made in the course of proceedings under this Act, or otherwise) to enable him in a summary way to make an apportionment of any expenses recoverable under this Act in respect of any estate, between the zamindárs of, and the holders of, tenures in such estate, the Collector may, as soon as possible after he shall have made a provisional apportionment under section 24 of the sum payable in respect of such estate, and without calling on the zamindár to give in any list of tenures as provided in clause (e) of section 25, proceed to make a provisional apportionment between the zamindárs and the tenure-holders of such estates of the sum which has been provisionally apportioned under section 24 as payable in respect of the estate.

Notice to zamindár when provisional apportionment made summarily.

32. Whenever any provisional apportionment of the sum payable between the zamindárs and the tenure-holders may have been made summarily, as provided in the last preceding section, the notice to be served on the zamindár under section 25 shall inform the zamindár, in addition to the particulars specified in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) of the said section, and instead of those specified in clauses (e) and (f), that under this Act he is entitled to recover a portion of the amount which shall be finally apportioned as payable in respect of his estate under section 26 from the tenure-holders on his estate; and that the Collector has made a provisional apportionment of the said sum between the zamíndár and tenure-holders according to a list which shall be annexed to the said notice;

and shall warn him

that if he fails to prefer any objection to such provisional apportionment on or before the date specified, he will be deemed to have given up all right to prefer any such objection at any future time; and that the Collector will proceed to make such apportionment final, or to make any modifications in it which he may think fit; provided that the sum finally made payable by the zamíndár shall not exceed the sum apportioned upon him in the said provisional apportionment between the zamíndárs and the tenure-holders.

33. As soon as a provisional apportionment between the zamíndár and the tenure-holders shall have been made summarily as provided in section 31, the Collector shall proceed to serve notices on the tenure-holders concerned in the manner provided in section 30, and to do all other things as if the said provisional apportionment upon tenure-holders had been made on a list given in by the zamíndár under section 30.

Procedure on provisional apportionment.

34. In apportioning the amount among the zamíndár and the tenure-holders, the Collector shall first deduct such sum as he shall consider to be fairly payable by the zamíndár in respect of lands not included in any tenure, and in respect of his interest in lands which are included in tenures; and in apportioning the remainder among the tenures, he shall take into consideration the number of pillars erected within or on the boundary of each tenure, the extent of each tenure, and the distance at which it is situated from the boundary-marks; but no tenure shall be made liable for any portion of the sum so apportioned, unless some part of it be situated within fifteen hundred feet from some boundary-mark.

Mode of apportionment among tenures.

35. So soon as the final apportionment among tenure-holders under section 30 shall be completed, the Collector shall cause to be issued notices to each of the said tenure-holders, stating the amount payable in respect of each of their tenures, with interest (if any) calculated at the annual rate of six per centum from the date on which the zamíndár paid to the Collector the sum which was apportioned on his estate under section 26, and the cost of serving upon the tenure-holder the notice under this section and calling upon him to pay the total amount so due to the zamíndár of the estate of which the tenure is a part, within one month of the date of the notice:

Notice of apportionment in respect of tenures.

Provided that no separate notice shall be served under this section on any tenure-holder who is required to pay a sum of less than two rupees as his share of the expenses apportioned under this Act; but in respect of such sums it shall be sufficient to publish a list in the manner prescribed by section 30,

No separate notice to tenure-holder required to pay less than two rupees.

and no costs incurred in respect of the publication of any such list shall be recoverable from any person mentioned therein as liable to pay less than two rupees.

Collector not to issue notices to tenure-holders until zamindars have deposited costs.

36. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 35, the Collector shall not issue the notices therein mentioned to the tenure-holders until the zamindars concerned shall have deposited with the Collector the full amount of the costs of serving all the notices, and of publishing the lists as required by that section.

Apportionment between tenure-holder and holder of subordinate tenure.

37. The provisions of sections 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 34 and 35 shall be applicable, as far as possible, to every case in which any tenure-holder who has been made liable for the payment of any share of expenses under this Act may apply to the Collector to apportion the amount for which he has been made liable between himself and the holders of subordinate tenures direct from himself; and the provisions of sections 31, 32 and 33, regarding the procedure for making a provisional apportionment in a summary way between a zamindar and the tenure-holders on his estate, shall be applicable, as far as possible, to the provisional apportionment of expenses between the holder of a tenure and the holders of under-tenures within his tenure;

provided always that no such apportionment shall be made in respect of raiyats who have a right of occupancy only, and whose rent is not fixed in perpetuity.

Recovery of sums payable to zamindar or tenure-holder.

38. Every zamindar or tenure-holder to whom any sum is payable under the preceding sections, may recover the same with interest as aforesaid in the manner provided by any law for the time being in force for the recovery of arrears of rent in respect of the tenure for which the sum is due.

Recovery of sums expended by Government.

39. The provisions of this Part shall apply to all sums expended by the Government since the first day of November 1874 in erecting boundary-marks.

provided that the relaying and record of a boundary by the Collector under this section shall not affect the possession of any land by any party; and shall be in addition to the determination and record of the boundary according to actual possession required by section 41.

Nothing contained in this section shall be held to prohibit the Collector from deviating from a boundary as held by actual possession or as shewn on a former map, and laying down a new boundary, if all the parties concerned agree to such new boundary, on the ground that the boundary held by actual possession, or as shewn on the former map, was incorrect, and if it appears to the Collector that there is no objection to the adoption of such new boundary.

In certain cases Collector may cause marks to be erected.

and whenever it shall come to the notice of the Collector that any boundary has been determined by a competent Court or authority, the Collector may cause such marks as he may think fit to be erected in order to secure the boundary permanently, and the provisions of Parts III and IV shall, so far as is possible, be applicable to boundary-marks which are erected under this section, and to the apportionment of the cost thereof.

rent.

15. Whenever in any suit instituted under the provisions of this Act it shall appear to the Collector that a raiyat having a right of occupancy is liable to enhancement of the rent previously paid by him on the ground that the value of the produce or the productive powers of the land held by him have been increased otherwise than by the agency or at the expense of the raiyat ;

or whenever in any such suit it shall appear to the Collector that such raiyat is entitled to claim an abatement of the rent previously paid by him on the ground that the value of the produce or the productive powers of the land held by him have been decreased by any cause beyond the powers of the said raiyat, the Collector shall, if possible, fix the rate of rent payable by such raiyat, so that the rent previously paid by such raiyat shall bear to the rent so fixed the same proportion as the former value of the produce of the soil, calculated on an average of three or five years next before the date of the alleged rise or decrease in value, bears to the present value of such produce ;

but if in any such suit the Collector shall not be able to ascertain to his satisfaction the former value of the produce as required for the application of the above rule, the Collector may, if he think proper so to do, determine the rate of rent payable by such raiyat according to any of the following methods :—

(a) by fixing the rent of the raiyat so that it shall represent such portion of the existing average gross value of the produce of the land held by him as the Collector shall consider fair and equitable with reference to the circumstances of each case ;

(b) by fixing the rent of the raiyat so that it shall represent such portion of the average nett profits of the land held by him (after deducting from the average gross annual value of the produce of such lands such a sum as may be deemed proper on account of costs of production and disposal of such produce) as the Collector shall consider fair and equitable with reference to the circumstances of each case ;

(c) by taking as the standard of comparison the rates which are generally paid in adjacent places by raiyats having no right of occupancy, or in such places as the Collector may select, for lands of a similar description and having similar advantages ; and by fixing the rates of rent to be paid by the raiyat having a right of occupancy at such percentage below the rent which would be paid for the same lands by raiyats having no right of occupancy as the Collector may consider fair and equitable with reference to the circumstances of each case.

16. In every suit under this Act of the nature of those specified in the first, second, third and fourth clauses of section 23 of Act X of 1859,<sup>a</sup> any number of raiyats or other tenants may be sued, or may sue collectively, and it shall be no ground for dismissing or refusing to hear the application that such raiyats or other tenants are wrongly joined as plaintiffs or defendants, provided all such raiyats or tenants hold land in the same estate ;

Suit may be brought by or against any number of raiyats collectively.

but no order shall be passed in such case unless the officer making such order is satisfied that all parties have had an opportunity to appear and make objection to any claims preferred against them ;

and if at any time it shall appear to the Collector that the question between any two of the parties of whom one is so joined with others cannot conveniently be so jointly tried, the Collector may order a separate trial to be held.

Order to specify how far it applies to each raiyat.

17. Every order passed in any such case as is mentioned in the first clause of the last preceding section, shall specify the extent to which each of the raiyats or other tenants named in the order shall be affected thereby.

Rate of rent once fixed to be fixed for five years.

18. Every decree of a Collector under this Act in any suit of the nature of those specified in the first clause of section 23 of Act X of 1859<sup>a</sup> shall have effect, and the rates of rent determined by such decree shall be payable from the beginning of the year in which such suit was instituted (such year being computed according to the era in force in the aforesaid tract), or from such later date as the Collector may fix ; and the rates of rent so determined shall not be liable to abatement or enhancement for five years from the first day of the year in which the decree may have effect as provided in this section, or, in case any part of the tract is comprised within a temporarily-settled estate, until the conclusion of the period of the settlement with Government under which such estate is held, if such period expires before the lapse of five years as aforesaid :

Provided that, during the currency of the term for which the rent has been fixed as aforesaid, any person may bring a suit to enhance the rent of any raiyat or tenant whose rent has been so fixed, on the ground that the area of the raiyat's or tenant's holding has been increased by alluvion or otherwise, and on no other ground.

And any raiyat or tenant may, during the said period, bring a suit for abatement of his rent which has been so fixed, on the ground that the area of the land held by him has been diminished by diluvion or otherwise, and on no other ground.

Collector may refer suit to civil Court.

19. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, if it shall appear to the Collector that any suit which is pending before him involves any question relating to the title of land or to some interest in land, as between parties having conflicting claims thereto, or any other question which can more properly be decided by a civil Court, or, in districts in which Act X of 1859 is in force, by a revenue Court under that Act, the Collector may transfer such

20. If such suit involves a question of rent or any other question which may properly be settled by the Collector under this Act, as well as a question which may more properly be decided by such civil Court or revenue Court, the Collector may decide the former question under this Act before transferring the suit to such other Court; and such decision shall be subject to the provisions of this Act in respect of appeals, and the civil Court or revenue Court shall be bound to give the final decision in the suit in accordance with the decision of the Collector or of the appellate authority under this Act on such question, so far as such decision is applicable.

Collector may decide question before transferring suit to civil Court.

21. Every order and decree of a Collector under this Act may be enforced by the same means and in the same manner as if such order or decree were an order or decree to the same effect made under Act X of 1859.<sup>a</sup>

Enforcement of decisions.

22. Notwithstanding that the Lieutenant-Governor may have issued a notification as provided in section 3 declaring this Act to be no longer in force in any tract, the Collector shall proceed to decide all suits pending before him on the date of issue of such notification as if no such notification had been issued; and in respect of all such suits and of all other matters and suits which may be pending before the Board, the Commissioner or the Collector on the date of the issue of such notification, the said Board, Commissioner and Collector shall, until such matters or suits are finally decided or disposed of, exercise the same powers with respect thereto as if such notification had not been issued.

26. In suits of the nature of those specified in clauses 2, 4 and 7 of section 23 of Act X of 1859, when such suits have been tried and decided by the Collector, if the amount sued for, or the value of the property claimed, does not exceed 100 rupees, the judgment of the Collector shall be final and not open to revision or appeal, unless in any such suit a question of right to enhance or otherwise vary the rent of a raiyat or tenant, or any question relating to a title to land, or to some interest in land as between parties having conflicting claims thereto, has been determined by the judgment, in which case the judgment shall be open to appeal in the manner provided in section 29.

The provisions of section 154 of Act X of 1859<sup>a</sup> shall apply to all suits in which the judgment of the Collector is final.

No appeal against order declaring arrear due unless arrear has been paid.

27. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, no appeal shall lie against any order declaring arrears of rent to be due and directing that such arrears be paid, unless such appeal shall be accompanied by the certificate of the Collector that the amount of such arrears has been paid to the Collector; and on payment of such amount, the Collector, if required so to do by the person making such payment, shall be bound to grant such certificate, and to hold the amount in deposit until the appeal shall have been disposed of, or until the period for making such appeal shall have expired.

PART V.

OF THE OPENING OF SEPARATE ACCOUNTS IN RESPECT OF SHARES.

69. Notwithstanding anything contained in Act XI of 1859<sup>a</sup> (an Act to improve the law relating to sales of land, &c.), from the commencement of this Act no separate account shall be opened under the provisions of section 10 or of section 11 of the said Act in respect of the share of any applicant under the said sections otherwise than for a share corresponding with the character and extent of interest in the estate in respect of which such applicant is recorded as proprietor or manager under this Act.

Opening of separate account of share of applicant under Act XI, 1859.

70. When a proprietor of a joint estate, who is recorded as proprietor of an undivided interest held in common tenancy in any specific portion of the land of the estate, but not extending over the whole estate, desires to pay separately the share of the Government-revenue which is due in respect of such interest, he may submit to the Collector a written application to that effect.

Proprietor holding undivided interest in specific lands may apply for separate account.

The application must contain a specification of the land in which he holds such undivided interest, and of the boundaries and extent thereof, together with a statement of the amount of Government-revenue heretofore paid on account of such undivided interest.

On the receipt of this application the Collector shall cause it to be published in the manner prescribed for publication of notice in section 10 of Act XI of 1859.*

In the event of no objection being urged by any recorded co-sharer within six weeks from the time of publication, the Collector shall open a separate account with the applicant, and shall credit separately to his share all payments made by him on account of it.

The date on which the Collector records his sanction to the opening of a separate account shall be held to be that from which the separate liabilities of the share of the applicant commence.

Sections 12,
13 and 14 of Act XI of 1859 applied.

71. Section 12 of the said Act XI of 1859 shall apply to every application made under the last preceding section; and the effect and consequences of opening a separate account under the last preceding section shall be such and the same as are described in section 13 and in section 14 of Act XI of 1859.

Application to close separate account.

72. Whenever any share in respect of which a separate account has been opened by the Collector under section 10 or section 11 of the said Act XI of 1859, or under section 70, shall no longer correspond with the character and extent of interest held in the estate by any one proprietor or manager, or jointly by two or more proprietors or managers, any proprietor or manager whose name is borne on the general register under this Act as proprietor or manager of any interest in the share in respect of which such separate account is open, may submit to the Collector a written application setting out the circumstances under which such share no longer corresponds with the extent of interest held in the estate by any recorded proprietor or manager, or jointly by two or more recorded proprietors or managers, and specifying the manner in which such share has become broken up and distributed among the proprietors of the estate, and praying that the separate account standing open in respect of such share shall be closed, and, if he so desire, praying that another separate account be opened in respect of any other share or shares which were wholly or partly included in the share in respect of which the previous separate account was open.

Illustration.

In a certain estate separate accounts have been opened under section 10 of Act XI of 1859 for the 4 annas share of A, and also for the 5 annas share of B, the accounts of the remaining 7 annas share being kept jointly in the names of the remaining proprietors C, D and E.

* See supra, p. 393.

In course of time X has inherited A's 4 annas share, and also C's interest in the 7 annas share, which amounted to 3 annas; X has also acquired by purchase 2 annas out of B's 5 annas share, so that the interests in the estate are now distributed as follows:—

|       |     |     |     |     |          |
|-------|-----|-----|-----|-----|----------|
| X     | ... | ... | ... | ... | 9 annas. |
| B     | ... | ... | ... | ... | 3 „      |
| D & E | ... | ... | ... | ... | 4 „      |

X, if a recorded proprietor of the estate, may apply to the Collector to close the separate account which is open in respect of A's 4 annas share, and also the separate account which is open in respect of B's 5 annas share, as neither of these shares corresponds with the extent of interest held by any one proprietor, or held jointly by two or more proprietors in the estate;

and in the same application X may apply for the opening of a separate account in respect of the 9 annas share which he now holds.

Any of the other proprietors might also make a similar application.

73. On receipt of such application the Collector shall cause a copy of the same to be published in the manner provided in section 10 of Act XI of 1859;<sup>a</sup> and if within six weeks from the date of such publication no objection is made by any other recorded proprietor of the estate, the Collector shall close the separate account which then stands open, and shall open a separate account with the applicant as required by him, under section 10, or section 11 of Act XI of 1859, or under section 70, as the case may be.

Separate account may be closed and another opened.

74. If any recorded proprietor of the estate, whether the same be held in common tenancy or otherwise, object that the share in respect of which any separate account is open as aforesaid has not been broken up, and does still correspond with the character and extent of interest held by any one proprietor or manager, or jointly by two or more proprietors or managers, or object that the applicant has no right to the share claimed by him, or that his interest in the estate is less or other than that claimed by him, or (when the application is in respect of a specific portion of the land of an estate, or in respect of an undivided interest held in common tenancy in any specific portion of the land of the estate), object that the amount of Government-revenue stated by the applicant to have been heretofore paid on account of such portion of land, or on account of the applicant's undivided interest therein, is not the amount which has been recognized by the other sharers as the Government-revenue thereof, the Collector shall refer the parties to the civil Court, and shall suspend proceedings until the question at issue is judicially determined.

Procedure in case of objection.

<sup>a</sup> See supra, p. 393.

Payment of sums payable by Collector to proprietors jointly.

Saving of written contracts and recovery from person receiving money.

82. Every amount which may become due to the Collector under the provisions of this Act in respect of any expenses incurred, of any fees payable, of any notices served, of any costs payable by any party, or of any fines imposed, shall be deemed to be a demand under section 1 of Bengal Act VII of 1865<sup>a</sup> (an Act to make further provision for the recovery of arrears of land-revenue and public demands recoverable as arrears of land-revenue), and shall be leviable as such.

- Exception 1.*—If the rent payable by the cultivating raiyats on account of any land shall have been determined by any Court of competent jurisdiction, or shall have been altered with the consent of the said raiyats at any time during the said three years, the amount so determined, or the amount to which the rent may have been so altered, may, if the Collector think proper, be deemed to be the rental of the land.

Exception 2.—If any land is held on a permanent tenure which was created by all the proprietors of the estate, and which by any law for the time being in force is protected against the purchaser at a sale for arrears of revenue, the rent payable by the holder of such tenure shall be deemed to be the rental of such land.

Exception 3.—If any land is held on a tenure which, although not protected as aforesaid, is admitted by all the recorded proprietors of the estate to be a permanent tenure created by all the proprietors of the estate, subject only to the payment of an amount of rent fixed in perpetuity, and of such nature that the rent thereof is not liable to be enhanced under any circumstances by the proprietors of the said estate, or any person deriving his title from such proprietors, the rent payable by the holder of such tenure (whether he be known as taluqdár, patnidár, mukarrarídár, or by any other designation) shall be deemed to be the rental of such land.

Exception 4.—If any land be unoccupied, such amount as the Collector may determine, with reference to all the circumstances of the case, shall be deemed to be the rental of such land.

PART II.

OF THE RIGHT TO CLAIM PARTITION.

8. Except as hereinafter otherwise provided, every recorded proprietor of a joint undivided estate, who is in actual possession of the interest in respect of which he is so recorded, is entitled to claim a partition of the said estate, and the separation therefrom and assignment to him as a separate estate of lands representing the interest of which he is in such possession; provided that, and as far only as, such partition, separation and assignment can be made in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Who entitled to claim
partition.

Any two or more such recorded proprietors may claim that lands representing the interests of all such claimants may be formed into one separate estate, to be held by them as a joint undivided estate; and every provision of this Act which applies to an applicant for partition shall apply to any two or more persons making such joint claim.

9. (a) If the interest of any recorded proprietor who is entitled to claim partition as aforesaid is an undivided share in an estate held in common tenancy, such person shall be entitled to have assigned to him as his separate estate lands of which the assets shall bear the same proportion to the assets of the parent-estate as his undivided share in the parent-estate bears to the entire parent-estate.

Partition
according to interest.

(b) If the interest of such recorded proprietor is the proprietary right of certain specific mauzas or lands forming part of the parent-estate, and held by him in severalty, he shall be entitled to have assigned to him as his separate estate the said mauzas or lands.

(c) If the interest of such recorded proprietor consists of an undivided share held in common tenancy in certain specific mauzas or tracts forming part of the parent-estate, but not extending over the whole area of the parent-estate, he shall be entitled to have assigned to him as his separate estate lands situated within such specific mauzas or tracts, of which the assets shall bear the same proportion to the assets of such specific mauzas or tracts as his undivided share in such specific mauzas or tracts bears to the entire mauzas or tracts :

Provided that, if the interest of such recorded proprietor consists of such undivided share in more than one mauza or tract, he shall not be entitled to have lands assigned to him in every such mauza or tract, but the Collector may assign to him as his separate estate lands situated in any one or more of the said mauzas or tracts, provided that the assets of such lands are in proportion to the aggregate of the interests which he holds in all such mauzas or tracts.

(d) If such recorded proprietor holds in the parent-estate more than one of the kinds of interest specified in this section, lands shall be assigned to him as far as possible in accordance with the principles above laid down.

Life-estate.

10. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, no person having a proprietary interest in an estate for the term of his life only shall be deemed to be a person entitled to claim partition under this Act.

Partition of permanently-settled estate when allowed.

11. No application for the partition of a permanently-settled estate shall be admitted, and if the application shall have been admitted, no partition shall be carried out in accordance with such application, if the separate estate of any of the proprietors would be liable for an annual amount of land-revenue not exceeding one rupee, until the proprietor of such separate estate agrees to redeem the amount of revenue for which his estate would be liable, by payment of such sum as the Lieutenant-Governor may fix with reference to the circumstances of such estate.

Partition of estate privately divided, when to be made.

12. Whenever a division of the lands of any estate has been made by private arrangement of the proprietors thereof, and in accordance with such arrangement each proprietor is in possession of separate lands held in severalty as representing his interest in the estate, no such estate shall be brought under partition, and no partition of such estate shall be made under this Act, otherwise than on a joint petition presented under section 101 or section 105 by all the proprietors thereof, unless such partition shall have been ordered to be made by a civil Court.

13. The Collector may refuse to admit an application for the formation of lands held in severalty into a separate estate, if in consequence of such lands being intermingled with those held by other proprietors the result of the partition would be to form out of a compact estate one or more estates consisting of scattered parcels of land in such a way as, in the opinion of the Collector, to endanger the safety of the land-revenue, and the Collector may at any time refuse to proceed with a partition which would have such a result.

When Collector may refuse formation of lands held in severalty into separate estate.

But a partition may be allowed in such a case if the recorded proprietors shall agree to such a distribution of land as shall make the estates formed by the partition reasonably compact.

Nothing in this section shall be understood to prohibit the partition into separate estates of a parent-estate which before such partition is not compact and consists only of scattered parcels of land.

14. No proprietor who has alienated any portion of his interest in an estate, or in any specific lands of an estate, by private contract, with the condition that the transferee shall be liable in respect of the interest acquired by him to pay a specified amount or a specified share of the land-revenue for which the estate is liable (such amount or share being other than the proportionate amount or the proportionate share for which such transferred interest if formed into a separate estate would be liable under the provisions of section 6);

Interest alienated with special condition as to revenue-liability.

and no proprietor who has derived his title from any proprietor who has made any alienation as aforesaid, shall be entitled to claim a separation under this Act of the interest which he continues to hold in the estate; and no such transferee as aforesaid, and no person deriving his title from such transferee, shall be entitled to claim a separation of the interest which has been so acquired :

Provided that a separation of such interests may be made if the parties concerned agree to waive the conditions of the contract as regards the proportion of revenue for which the transferor and transferee or their representatives respectively are liable, and to hold the estates which may be allotted to them respectively by the partition subject to the payment of such amount of land-revenue as may be assessed upon them respectively by the Revenue-authorities under this Act.

15. Notwithstanding that a parent-estate may have been declared to be under partition as provided in section 31, any arrears of revenue accruing due on such estate before the date specified in the notice issued under section 123 may be realized by sale of the parent-estate as if such estate had not been declared to be under partition; and if such sale takes place, the partition-proceedings shall cease from the date thereof.

Arrears of revenue may be realized by sale of parent-estate.

Shares may be protected from liability for arrears under laws in force.

16. Nothing contained in the last preceding section shall be deemed to affect the provisions of sections 10, 11, 12, 13 or 14 of Act XI of 1859<sup>a</sup> (an Act to improve the law relating to sales of lands for arrears of revenue), or any provisions of any similar law for the time being in force in respect to the opening of separate accounts for different shares in an estate, and the protection afforded to such shares thereby :

Provided that, if any share in any estate is sold for its own arrears of revenue while such estate is under partition in accordance with the provisions of this Act, such share shall be sold subject to the partition-proceedings, which shall proceed as if no such sale had taken place ; and the purchaser of the share sold may, from the date of such sale, exercise all the rights which the proprietor whose share he has purchased might have exercised, and shall be subject to all the liabilities to which such proprietor would have been subject in respect of the partition-proceedings.

PART III.

19. Subject to the provisions of section 61, every application shall, if possible, be accompanied by a copy of the rent-roll of the estate, by a statement of the rents collected from such estate on behalf of the applicant during each of the three years immediately preceding such application, and by copies of any measurement-papers of the estate which the applicant may have in his possession.

Application to be accompanied by copy of rent-roll and statement of rents.

The said rent-roll, statement and measurement-papers shall be attested by the patwáris of the villages, if any, and every such application, rent-roll and statement shall be presented, subscribed and verified as provided in section 52.

If the applicant is unable to produce a rent-roll or statement as above required, he shall state the reason of such inability, and the name and address of the person who has in his possession the information necessary for the preparation of such rent-roll and statement, and the Collector may, if he shall think fit, require such person to produce such rent-roll and statement.

20. If the application does not fulfil the requirements of the three last preceding sections, the Collector may reject such application or may order it to be amended.

Collector may reject application.

21. If in the opinion of the Collector the application fulfils the said requirements, and there appears to be no objection to making the partition, the Collector shall publish a notification of the application in the manner prescribed in section 134, and shall also cause copies thereof to be posted up at the Court of the Judge of the district, at the Court of every Munsif and Sub-divisional officer within whose jurisdiction, and at every Police-station within the jurisdiction of which, any lands appertaining to the estate are known to be situated, and shall invite any person claiming any proprietary right in the estate, who may object to the partition, to state his objection either in person, or by duly authorized agent, on a day to be specified in the notification, not being less than thirty or more than sixty days from the date of the publication of the notification on the estate.

Procedure of Collector on receipt of application.

22. Notice of the application shall also be served in the manner prescribed by section 135 on such of the recorded proprietors of the estate as shall not have joined in the application, and on any other proprietor who may have been named in the application.

Notice to proprietors not joining.

23. If any objection be made to the partition by any person claiming a proprietary right as aforesaid on or before the day specified in the notification published under section 21, or at any subsequent time if it shall seem fit to the Collector to admit such objection, and the Collector, on consideration of such objection, shall be of opinion that there is good and sufficient reason for rejecting the application, he may reject the same, and in that case shall record the grounds of such rejection.

On valid objection being made within time allowed, application may be refused.

Procedure
when objection raises question of title or right.

24. If the objection raises any question of the extent of interest, or of right or title as between any applicant and any other person claiming to be a proprietor of the parent-estate, and if it shall appear to the Collector that such question has not been already determined by a Court of competent jurisdiction, the Collector may hold such inquiry as he may deem necessary into the objection, and, if he be satisfied that the applicant is in possession of the extent of the interest for the separation of which he has applied, may, instead of rejecting the application as provided in the last preceding section—

(a) direct that the partition-proceedings shall proceed for the purpose of forming and assigning to the applicant a separate estate in accordance with the extent of interest claimed by him in the parent-estate ; or

(b) direct that such proceedings be postponed for four months.

When Collect-to resume
proceedings.

25. At the expiration of the said four months, the Collector shall resume the proceedings, unless the person who has made the objection, or some other person, shall have obtained an order from a civil Court directing that such proceedings be stayed, or shall be able to show that a suit has been instituted before such Court to try some question of such nature that the Collector shall think fit to stay the proceedings until the question shall have been finally decided, or until the proceedings in such Court in respect thereof shall have terminated.

Suit in civil Court when not to affect proceedings
under Act.

26. No suit instituted in a civil Court by any person claiming any right or title in the parent-estate, after the lapse of four months from the issue of an order of the Collector under clauses (a) and (b) of section 24, or after the lapse of four months from the issue of an order of the Collector under section 31 declaring the estate to be under partition, shall avail to stay or affect the progress of any proceedings which shall have been taken under this Act for the partition of an estate ; and all rights which may be conferred on any person by the final decree in such suit shall be subject to such proceedings in the manner hereinafter provided.

Decree made
while partition-proceedings in progress.

27. Every decree passed in such suit after the parent-estate shall have been declared to be under partition as provided in section 31, but before the date specified in the notice under section 123, shall be made in recognition of the proceedings then in progress under this Act for the partition of such parent-estate, and shall be framed in such manner that the provisions of such decree may be applied to, and may be carried out in reference to, the separate estates which the Collector in his proceeding under section 31 shall have ordered to be formed out of the parent-estate ; and if the effect of any such decree be to declare any person or body of persons entitled to any extent of interest in such parent-estate in excess of the extent of interest which the Collector in the said proceeding has declared to be held by such person or body of persons, such decree shall specify, separately in respect of every proprietor or body of proprietors of whose interests the Collector has separately specified the extent in the said proceeding, the proportion of such excess which such person or body of persons is entitled to recover from every such proprietor or body of proprietors ;

and every person or body of persons so declared entitled to recover any extent of interest from any such proprietor or body of proprietors shall, for the purposes of the partition-proceedings, be deemed to have the same rights, and to be subject to the same liabilities, as a person who has acquired such extent of interest from such proprietor or body of proprietors by private purchase after the estate was brought under partition under section 31, and on the date on which the decree was passed ;

and such person or body of persons may apply, as in this Act provided, for the separation and assignment to him, or them, of the lands representing the extent of interest so acquired ;

and such application shall be dealt with as provided in section 32.

28. Every decree passed after the date specified in the notice under section 123 in a suit which was instituted as mentioned in section 26, shall be made in recognition of the partition-proceedings, and shall be framed in such manner as to give effect to such division of the parent-estate into separate estates as shall have been made by the Collector, and not to disturb such division ;

Decree made after partition-

and if the effect of any such decree shall be to declare any person or body of persons to have been entitled to any extent of interest in the parent-estate in excess of the extent of interest which is represented by the separate estate assigned to such person or body of persons by the Collector in the partition-proceedings, such decree shall specify, separately in respect of the proprietor or joint proprietors of every separate estate formed by the partition, the proportion of such excess of interest which such person or body of persons is entitled to recover from such proprietor or joint proprietors ; and every person or body of persons so declared entitled to recover any extent of interest from the proprietor or joint proprietors of a separate estate shall be entitled to recover such extent of interest out of the separate estate which has been assigned to such proprietor or joint proprietors, and out of such separate estate only ;

and every such decree as aforesaid shall be executed by placing the person or persons so declared entitled to recover in the position of a recorded joint proprietor or recorded joint proprietors of such separate estate, holding the same as a joint undivided estate in common tenancy with the proprietor or joint proprietors to whom such separate estate was assigned by the Collector in the partition-proceedings, the extent of the interest of the joint proprietors respectively in such estate being such as is declared in the aforesaid decree.

Civil Court may order
partition.

29. Subject to the provisions of section 11, a civil Court may at any time direct the Collector to assign to any person lands representing a specified interest in any estate, or in any specified village or tract of land in an estate, to be held by such person as a separate estate, or to divide off from any estate any specified villages or lands, and to assign them to any person to be held as a separate estate, provided that an application for such partition and separation shall be presented by such person, as required by sections 17, 18 and 19 ;

but no civil Court shall in any case specify the amount of revenue for which any separate estate which it may direct to be formed under the provisions of this section shall be liable.

Collector to assess land-revenue in accordance with Act.

30. The Collector shall assess the land-revenue on every such separate estate in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and no civil Court shall direct the Collector to carry out a partition otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Collector may declare estate to be under partition.

31. If no objection be made within the time allowed under section 21 to an application for partition, or when all objections have been disposed of, and if the Collector has no reason to believe that any obstacle exists to his making the partition as applied for, he shall direct that the application be admitted, and record a proceeding declaring the estate to be under partition, for the purpose of forming and assigning to the applicant a separate estate.

In such proceeding the Collector shall declare the extent of interest in the parent-estate which he finds to be held by the applicant or joint applicants ; and, if more than one separate application for separation shall have been made and admitted, the extent of interest which he finds to be held by every separate applicant or body of joint applicants respectively ;

and also the extent of interest which remains to any recorded proprietor, or to any number of recorded proprietors who are not applicants ; and shall order that lands proportionate to the interest so declared to be held by each applicant, or body of joint applicants respectively, shall be formed into a separate estate, to be assigned to such applicant or body of joint applicants ; and that lands proportionate to the interest so declared to remain to the recorded proprietor, or the number of recorded proprietors who are not applicants, shall be left forming a separate estate.

Subsequent application for separation of other share.

32. If at any time after the Collector has made an order for partition under the last preceding section any recorded proprietor in the estate, other than the original applicant, shall apply for the separation of his share, the Collector may either order that the proceedings for effecting such separation shall be carried on simultaneously with those for separating the share of the original applicant, or, if he consider that such a course would entail delay in the completion of the original proceedings, he may order that no action shall be taken on such subsequent application until after the proceedings for the separation of the original applicant's share shall have been completed.

In the latter case all or any of the rent-rolls, measurements and other papers which were used in the separation of the original applicant's share, may be used, as far as they are applicable, in the partition for which subsequent application has been made.

33. The Collector may refer any application for partition to a Deputy Collector for the purpose of making any enquiries and doing anything required by this Part;

Collector may refer application for partition to Deputy Collector.

provided that every order—

(b) directing, under section 24, that the partition shall proceed, or shall be postponed;

(c) directing, under section 31, that an application for partition be admitted, and declaring an estate to be under partition;

(d) made under the first clause of the last preceding section;

(e) appointing a Deputy Collector under the next succeeding section to carry out the partition,

35. If, at any time after an order shall have been passed for making a partition, all the recorded proprietors of the estate shall present a petition to the effect that they do not wish the partition to proceed, the Collector may, on the report of the Deputy Collector or otherwise, strike the partition-case off the file, on payment by the proprietors of all costs and expenses incurred in and about such partition; and any such costs and expenses which shall not already have been levied as provided in section 39 or section 40, shall be levied in proportion to the shares of the respective proprietors.

Partition stayed if parties desire.

Recovery of costs.

36. If, at any time after an order shall have been passed for making a partition, it shall appear from information which was not before the Collector at the time the partition was ordered, or otherwise, that any sufficient reason exists why the partition should not be proceeded with, the Commissioner may, on the report of the Collector or otherwise, after issuing a notice calling on the persons interested to show cause why the partition should not be struck-off the file, and after considering any objections which may be made, order the partition-case to be struck-off the file; and in such case any costs and expenses of the partition which shall not already have been levied as provided in section 39 or section 40 shall be levied in proportion to the shares of the respective proprietors.

Partition may be stayed and proceedings quashed by Commissioner.

and the Collector may appoint such peshkârs or other superior officers as may be required to test the work of the Amîns, and for the performance of similar duties :

provided that the scale of remuneration of such officers, and the time for which they shall be employed, shall be sanctioned by the Commissioner.

Special establishments may be appointed.

38. In any district or division in which partitions may be so numerous or so extensive as to render necessary the appointment of special establishments in the office of the Collector or of the Commissioner, the Collector and the Commissioner may, with the sanction of the Board, appoint such establishments.

Levy of cost of partition from proprietors.

39. As soon as possible after an estate has been declared to be under partition as provided in section 31, the cost of making the partition shall be estimated, and the amount shall be levied from the proprietors in such instalments and at such times during the progress of the partition as may be fixed in accordance with any rules which the Board may make in that behalf.

If the amount first estimated is found insufficient, supplementary estimates may be made from time to time, and the required amount may be levied as above provided.

Apportionment of costs.

40. The cost shall be apportioned on the proprietors of each share in proportion to their shares ; but whenever it shall appear to the Commissioner that the partition-proceedings have been unnecessarily delayed, and the cost of the partition enhanced by obstacles vexatiously put in the way of their completion by one or more of the proprietors, or by want of due diligence on the part of one or more of the proprietors in carrying out any requisitions made upon him or them, the Commissioner may direct that such portion of the cost as he may think proper in excess of the amount proportionate to his or their share shall be levied from such proprietor or proprietors.

41. Whenever any local enquiry may be held by the Deputy Collector or any other officer, in consequence of an objection raised by any person to any record of measurements, rent-rolls or other information which has been laid before the Deputy Collector, the Deputy Collector may declare the cost which has been incurred by such enquiry, and may direct that the entire cost so declared shall be paid by the person making the objection, or by any one of the proprietors, or that such cost shall be paid in such proportions as he shall think fit, by the said person and the proprietors or any of them, or that such cost be deemed a part of the general cost of making a partition as prescribed in section 39.

Deputy Collector may declare cost of local enquiry.

42. Upon the completion of the partition, the Collector shall make an order declaring the total cost thereof.

After completion of partition, Collector to declare total cost.

The account shall then be adjusted, either by returning to the proprietors any sums which they may have paid in excess of the total cost, or by levying from them in the manner provided in section 138, if necessary, any sums remaining due.

43. Whenever it shall appear to the Lieutenant-Governor that in any district the work required to be done by Deputy Collectors in connection with partitions under this Act is so great that such work would, if concentrated in the hands of one or more Deputy Collectors, fully occupy the time of such one or more Deputy Collectors, the Lieutenant-Governor may make an order directing that the salary of such one or more Deputy Collectors, as the case may be, shall be recovered from the proprietors of estates under partition in such district as part of the cost of such partitions, and thereupon such charge as the Collector may think fit to make in respect of such salary shall, in addition to the items mentioned in the last preceding section, be deemed to be a portion of the costs of every partition.

Salary of Deputy Collectors when deemed part of cost.

For the purposes of this section the salary of every Deputy Collector shall be deemed to be the amount of salary which is drawn by a Deputy Collector of the lowest grade.

44. For the purposes of sections 39, 40 and 42, the costs of any partition shall be deemed to be

Whenever such a fund shall have been established in any district, all expenses of making partitions of estates in such district shall, except as herein-after otherwise provided, be defrayed from such fund.

Procedure when Estates' Partition-Fund formed in district.

46. Whenever the Lieutenant-Governor shall have ordered an "Estates' Partition-Fund" to be formed in any district, the charges leviable from the proprietors of any estate under partition may be estimated and levied according to the estimate in each case as provided in sections 39 and 40, subject to final adjustment, as provided in section 42, or they may be levied according to a general scale of fees to be fixed by the Board.

Scale of fees.

47. Such scale of fees shall be fixed as nearly as may be, so that the receipts and expenditure of the said fund shall balance one another, and shall be revised from time to time by the Board for that purpose.

Such fees shall be levied from the proprietors in such instalments and at such times during the progress of the partition as may be fixed in accordance with any rules which the Board may make in that behalf, and the provisions of section 40 shall be applicable to such fees.

(e) the salary of any one or more Deputy Collectors which the Lieutenant-Governor may have ordered under section 43 to be recovered from the proprietors of estates under partition.

When civil Court may order parties to pay expenses of dividing estate.

50. Whenever any civil Court shall make a decree awarding or declaring any proprietary right in an estate, and shall require the Collector to make a partition of the estate, such Court may at the same time direct that the party or parties who may have withheld the right so decreed shall defray the whole of the expense which may be incurred in and about the partition, or the whole of the fees payable in respect of the partition under section 46, or that the said expenses or fees shall be defrayed by all or any of the parties to the suit in which the decree was made in such proportions as the Court may, from a consideration of the particular circumstances of the case, deem equitable.

Copies of all orders which the Court may pass under this section shall be transmitted to the Collector for his guidance, together with the precept which the Court may issue to him requiring him to divide the estate; and the Collector shall levy the said expenses and fees from the parties in the proportion ordered by such Court in the same manner and by the same means as if the levy of such expenses and fees had been ordered by the Collector.

PART VIII.

OF THE GENERAL PRINCIPLES ON WHICH PARTITIONS SHALL BE MADE.

Rules applicable to the Partition of Lands which are held by the Proprietors in common Tenancy.

87. Each separate estate shall be made as compact as is compatible with the primary object of making an equitable partition among the proprietors, and with the other provisions of this Part, but no partition made or approved by a Collector shall be set-aside on the ground only that the separate estates are not compact.

Estates formed in course of partition to be compact.

88. In selecting the villages or lands to be assigned to each separate estate formed out of a parent-estate which has been held in common tenancy, the Collector shall take into consideration the advantages or disadvantages arising from situation;

Circumstances to be considered in making partitions.

the vicinity of roads, railways, navigable rivers or canals ;
 the nature and quality of the soil and produce ;
 the quantity of cultivable and uncultivable waste-land ;
 the facilities for irrigation ;
 the state of the embankments and water-courses ;
 liability to accretion and diluvion, and any other circumstances affecting the value of the lands.

Rule when dwelling-house belonging to one proprietor is situated on ground allotted to another.

89. If a dwelling-house belonging to one proprietor is situated on any land which it may be necessary to include in the separate estate of another proprietor, the owner of such house may retain occupation thereof with the offices, buildings and grounds immediately attached thereto, upon agreeing to pay rent for the land occupied by such dwelling-house, offices, buildings and grounds to the proprietor of the separate estate in which such land is included.

The limits of the land so occupied and the rent to be paid for it in perpetuity shall be fixed by the Deputy Collector, and shall be stated in the paper of partition.

In every such case a defined pathway shall, as far as possible, be secured to the owner of the house, leading from his house to some portion of the separate estate allotted to him.

Rule in last preceding section applied to gardens, orchards, &c.

90. Whenever the Deputy Collector shall think fit, he may apply the rule contained in the last preceding section to gardens, to orchards of trees, to land planted with bamboos, and to any other lands which in his opinion are of special value to the proprietor in whose occupation they are found to be, in consequence of improvements made by such proprietor or of the particular use to which such lands are put.

Calculation of rental.

91. The rent fixed in perpetuity on any land by the Deputy Collector under either of the two last preceding sections shall be considered to be the rental of such land for the purposes of the partition.

Rent may be redeemed.

92. Whenever the dwelling-house of one proprietor, with the offices, buildings and grounds immediately attached thereto, shall have been included in the separate estate of another proprietor, and the annual rent to be paid in perpetuity in respect of the land occupied thereby shall have been fixed by the Deputy Collector and stated in the paper of partition, the proprietor whose dwelling-house, offices, buildings and grounds have been included as aforesaid may apply to the Deputy Collector for permission to redeem the annual rent so fixed, and the Deputy Collector shall give such permission, unless he shall be of opinion that such redemption would endanger the safety of the land-revenue for the payment of which the separate estate in which such dwelling-house, offices, buildings and grounds have been included will be liable.

93. If the Deputy Collector shall see no such reason to refuse his permission to the redemption being made, he shall certify the amount payable by such proprietor in redemption of such annual rent; and such amount shall be calculated and fixed by the Deputy Collector at ten per centum above the sum which would be required to purchase, at the market-prices then prevailing, so much stock of the Government-loan which was last issued as would yield an annual amount of interest equal to the annual land-rent fixed by the Deputy Collector under section 89.

Deputy Collector to certify amount payable in redemption of rent.

94. The proprietor desiring to redeem the rent as aforesaid, may pay to the Deputy Collector the amount so certified at any time before possession is given to the several proprietors of the separate estates allotted to each, as provided in section 123, but not after such possession has been given.

But not after possession of separate estates has been given.

95. On receipt of such payment, the Deputy Collector shall give notice to the proprietor in whose separate estate such land is situated that such payment has been made, and that the sum will be paid to him or to his authorized agent on application; and that from the date on which possession as aforesaid may be given, the proprietor who has redeemed the rent of such land will be entitled to hold such land as a rent-free tenure secured against the proprietor of the estate and against any auction-purchaser at a sale for arrears of revenue, including the Government; and from such date the lands shall be so held as a rent-free tenure.

Notice of payment to be given, and land to be held rent-free.

96. The Deputy Collector shall at the same time also give notice to the Collector of the district of the creation of such tenure; and the Collector of the district shall thereupon cause such tenure to be specially registered in the manner provided by section 42 of Act XI of 1859,<sup>a</sup> or by any similar law for the time being in force.

Collector to register rent-free tenure.

97. When two or more of the separate estates shall consist of the same proportions of the parent-estate, the Deputy Collector may, if he thinks proper, direct the parties entitled thereto respectively to draw lots in his presence for the equal separate estates which have been formed by assignment of lands, unless the recorded proprietors of the equal shares shall agree among themselves as to the allotment of the equal separate estates and shall present a petition to that effect; or unless for any other reason the Deputy Collector shall, with the sanction of the Collector, think proper to assign the equal separate estates to the proprietors of the equal shares without causing lots to be drawn.

Lots may be drawn for equal shares.

98. When the aggregate of two or more shares equals one other share, or equals the aggregate of two or more other shares, the Deputy Collector, with the sanction of the Collector, may cause such aggregate-shares to be treated as one share for the purpose of determining by lots as aforesaid which portion of the parent-estate shall be assigned to each proprietor as his separate estate ; and may decide which shares shall be formed into one aggregate-share for the purpose of causing such lots to be drawn ;

and may cause lots to be drawn in like manner as often as he shall think proper for such purpose.

And after lots shall have been drawn once (or more than once if necessary) as aforesaid, the Deputy Collector shall proceed to divide the portion of the parent-estate which has fallen by lot to each aggregate-share, among the proprietors of the different shares which were formed into such aggregate-share for the purpose of drawing lots, and shall assign to every such proprietor his separate estate within such portion in such position as the Deputy Collector may think proper :

Provided that lots shall in no case be drawn until after full opportunity shall have been given to the proprietors to advance their objections in respect of the papers accepted as the basis of the partition and in respect of the assets of the different lands as stated in such papers, and until any such objections which may have been made shall have been disposed of.

For the purposes of drawing lots, the 4 annas, 3 annas and 1 anna share may be taken together, and considered to be an aggregate 8 annas share.

The Deputy Collector will divide the parent-estate into two halves of equal value, and will then cause lots to be drawn, in order to determine which of the two halves shall be assigned to the proprietor of the integral 8 annas share, and which shall be divided among the proprietors of the 4 annas, 3 annas and 1 anna shares.

Subsequently, if necessary, the Deputy Collector may again cause lots to be drawn by the proprietor of the 4 annas share on the one hand, and the proprietors of the aggregate-share made up by taking together the 3 annas share and the 1 anna share.

Two tracts in the estate may first be marked-off, the value of each being equivalent to a 6 annas share, and then, for the purpose of drawing lots in respect of the assignment of these two tracts, the 4 annas share and the 2 annas share may be taken together as an aggregate

6 annas share, and lots may be drawn between the proprietor of the aggregate 6 annas share so formed on the one hand, and the proprietor of the integral 6 annas share on the other.

One of the two 6 annas tracts having thus been finally assigned to the proprietor of the integral 6 annas share, the Deputy Collector will proceed to assign the rest of the estate among the remaining sharers, and he may again, for the purpose of causing lots to be drawn, mark-off two tracts, the value of each of which shall be equivalent to 5 annas of the parent-estate, and may cause lots to be drawn for these two tracts between the proprietors of the 4 annas share and the 1 anna share taken together as an aggregate 5 annas share on the one hand, and the proprietors of the 3 annas share and the 2 annas share taken together as another 5 annas share on the other.

Finally, their separate estates will be assigned to the proprietor of the 4 annas share and of the 1 anna share respectively, within the tract which fell to them jointly by lot; and their separate estates will be assigned to the proprietors of the 3 annas share and of the 2 annas share respectively, within the tract which fell to them jointly by lot.

99. The Deputy Collector may, by a notice served as provided in section 135, require any proprietor in respect of whose share lots are to be drawn as provided in either of the two last preceding sections, to attend at the office of the Deputy Collector in person or by authorized agent at a time to be fixed by the Deputy Collector for the purpose of drawing lots; and may similarly require the proprietors of any shares which he may have ordered to be formed into an aggregate-share for the purpose of drawing lots, jointly to appoint an agent to draw lots on their joint behalf; and if at the time fixed for drawing such lots such proprietors have failed to agree to any such joint appointment, or shall fail to cause the attendance of an agent authorized to act jointly for all such proprietors, all such proprietors shall be deemed to have failed to comply with the Deputy Collector's requisition.

Deputy Collector may require proprietors to attend or appoint agent for drawing lots.

100. Whenever any proprietor or proprietors shall have failed to comply with a requisition of the Deputy Collector under the last preceding section, the Deputy Collector may appoint a person to draw lots on behalf of such proprietor or proprietors.

In default, Deputy Collector may appoint person to draw lots.

A joint application under this section may be made notwithstanding that a joint application under section 101 has been refused in respect of the same estate.

106. Whenever the Deputy Collector who is appointed to carry out a partition shall find that in accordance with a private arrangement made by the proprietors of an estate, the proprietors respectively, or any of the proprietors, are in possession of separate lands held in severalty as representing portions only of their respective interests in the parent-estate, while other lands of the parent-estate are held in common tenancy between such proprietors, a joint application as mentioned in section 12 shall not be necessary to authorize the Collector to make a partition of the estate, but the Deputy Collector shall allot to the separate estate of each proprietor the lands of which such proprietor is found to be in possession in severalty in accordance with such private arrangement.

Lands held in the occupation of the several proprietors of an estate as sir, khámár or nij-jot, or under any other similar denomination, shall not be deemed to be lands held in severalty as representing portions of their respective interests in the parent-estate within the meaning of this section, which applies only to cases in which there has been a boná fide division, by private arrangement among the proprietors, of lands held by tenants.

110. Whenever the Deputy Collector shall find in the parent-estate lands which are actually held rent-free (whether the proprietors of the estate do or do not claim a right to receive rent from such lands), the Deputy Collector shall make no division or assignment of such lands among the separate estates, but shall specify in the partition-papers and proceedings that such lands are left appertaining jointly to all the separate estates which are formed out of the parent-estate, in the proportion which each separate estate bears to the parent-estate:

(2) leave such lands unassigned to any separate estate, and specify in the partition-paper and proceedings that the lands are left appertaining jointly to all the separate estates which are formed out of the parent-estate in the proportion which each separate estate bears to the parent-estate.

In the event of such lands being so left undivided, the Deputy Collector shall assign to each separate estate such share of the rental of the tenure as shall bear the same proportion to the entire rental of the tenure, as the separate estate bears to the parent-estate.

In dealing with a tenure under this section, the Deputy Collector shall take into consideration the extent of the lands comprised in the tenure, and all other circumstances of the case.

113. Notwithstanding anything contained in the last preceding section, if it shall appear to the Commissioner, on the report of the Collector or otherwise, that the proceedings for such division have been unnecessarily delayed, and the cost of such division enhanced by obstacles vexatiously put in the way of the completion of such division by any proprietor of any estate other than that under partition, or by want of due diligence on the part of any such proprietor in carrying out any requisitions made upon him, the Commissioner may direct that such sum as he shall think fit shall be levied from every such proprietor who is responsible for such delay or additional cost, and every sum so levied shall be taken in diminution of the amount payable by the proprietors of the estate under partition as costs of such partition.

Proprietors of other estates may be required to pay portion of expenses of partition.

114. The allotment to the estate under partition of the proportionate share of the lands so held in common shall be submitted for the approval of the Collector, who may confirm, amend or reject the same, and in the case of rejection, may make or direct to be made another allotment.

Allotment of lands held in common to be sanctioned by Collector.

115. As soon as the allotment to the estate under partition of a proportionate share of the said lands shall have been approved by the Collector, the lands so allotted shall be dealt with in every respect as if they were held in common tenancy by such of the proprietors of the estate under partition as were found to hold interests in the common lands.

Provided that no partition shall be made under this section, if such partition would involve the assignment to any separate estate of such a quantity of the disputed land that the removal of such land from such estate would, in the opinion of the Collector, endanger the safety of the land-revenue for which such estate would be liable after the partition.

Procedure when partition completed and proprietor of estate dispossessed by order of competent Court.

117. If after a partition has been completed in accordance with an order passed by the Collector under clause 3 of the last preceding section, the proprietor of any separate estate shall be dispossessed by a decree of a Court of competent jurisdiction of any lands which may have been assigned to his estate by the partition, such proprietor shall not be entitled to claim any modification of the partition (which shall hold good), but shall be entitled to recover from the proprietors of the other separate estates formed by the partition such compensation as may be fair and equitable, having regard to the reduction in the proportionate value of his separate estate which is caused by such dispossession ; and such compensation may be recovered in a Court of competent jurisdiction from the proprietors of those separate estates on which a proportionate share of the total loss caused by the order of dispossession does not fall.

Bengal Act
III of 1878.

2. Bengal Act No. III of 1878<sup>a</sup> (an Act to define and limit the powers of Settlement-officers with respect to enhancement of rent) is hereby repealed.

Interpretation.

3. In this Act—

officer."

"Settlement-officer" means the Collector or any officer in charge of the revenue-jurisdiction of a district, and includes any Assistant Commissioner, Deputy Collector or Sub-Deputy Collector whom the Collector or other officer as aforesaid may authorize to conduct the enquiries and proceedings connected with any settlement of land-revenue, and any officer who may be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor to make any such settlement :

"Under-tenant."

"under-tenant" means any holder of a heritable and transferable intermediate tenure between the Government and the raiyat other than a zamindár.

Settlement-
proceedings
not affected by certain Acts.

4. Nothing contained in section 51 of Regulation VIII of 1793,<sup>b</sup> or in sections 13, 14 and 17 of Act X of 1859,<sup>c</sup> or in sections 14, 15 and 18 of Bengal Act VIII of 1869,<sup>d</sup> shall affect any settlement-proceedings under Regulation VII of 1822,<sup>e</sup> or under any other law for the time being in force for the regulation of settlements of land-revenue.

Rent to be in
with rates sanctioned by the revenue-authorities.

5. In any such settlement-proceedings the rent recorded as demandable from each raiyat shall, except as herein otherwise provided, be in accordance with the general rates sanctioned or subsequently approved for adoption in such settlement by the revenue-authorities from time to time empowered in that behalf by the Lieutenant-Governor.

Grounds of enhancement.

6. The Settlement-officer may, on some one or other of the following grounds and not otherwise, record a higher rent as demandable from any raiyat having a right of occupancy than the rent which was previously paid by him, namely—

(i) that the higher rent so recorded is calculated on rates which are not above the prevailing rates payable by the same class of raiyats for land of a similar description and with similar advantages in the surrounding neighbourhood ;

(ii) that the enhancement is not greater than is justified by the increase which has taken place in the productive powers of the land otherwise than by the agency, or at the expense, of the raiyat since the rent of the raiyat was last fixed ;

(iii) that the value of the produce of the land has been increased otherwise than by the agency, or at the expense, of the raiyat since the rent of the raiyyat was last fixed ; and that such higher rent does not bear a higher proportion to the rent of such raiyyat as last fixed than the normal price of produce at or about the time of the present settlement bears to the normal price of similar produce which prevailed at or about the time when such rent was last fixed ;

(iv) that the value of the produce of the land has been increased otherwise than by the agency, or at the expense, of the raiyyat since the last previous settlement of the lands was made ; and that such higher rent does not bear a higher proportion to that which would have been the rent of lands of a similar description and the same area, according to the rates of such previous settlement, than the normal price of produce at or about the time of the present settlement bears to the normal price of similar produce which prevailed at or about the time of such previous settlement, as recorded in the papers of such settlements, or as otherwise ascertained and certified by the Settlement-officer ;

(v) that the quantity of land held by the raiyyat has been proved by measurement to be greater than the quantity for which rent has been previously paid by him.

7. The rent recorded as demandable from an under-tenant shall be determined in accordance with the following rules :—

(a) Whenever the Settlement-officer shall find any person holding as an under-tenant, he shall first ascertain and record whether the tenure so held is binding as against the Government.

(b) If the Settlement-officer finds the tenure to be so binding, the rent recorded as demandable from such under-tenant shall in no case be higher than an amount which shall be ten per cent. below the aggregate of the rents recorded as payable to him from the subordinate under-tenants and raiyyats whose holdings fall within his tenure.

(c) If the Settlement-officer shall find that the tenure is not binding as against the Government, he shall first determine the proportionate amount of the demand of land-revenue to be assessed upon the lands included in the tenure in accordance with any orders of Government for the time being in force regulating the demand of land-revenue, and shall record the rent payable by such under-tenant at such a sum (not being less than such proportionate amount of land-revenue or more than the aggregate of the rents recorded as payable to him from the subordinate under-tenants and raiyyats whose holdings fall within his tenure) as may seem fair and equitable with reference to the character and circumstances of the tenure.

8. When the rent demandable from any under-tenant or raiyyat is recorded at an amount below that to which the rent of such under-tenant or raiyyat might have been enhanced under this Act, it may be recorded that such under-tenant or raiyat shall from time to time be liable to pay increased rent from such dates as may be fixed by the Settlement-officer, until the rent paid by him reaches the amount which the Settlement-officer may determine to be properly payable by him under this Act.

Service of notice of enhancement.

9. Whenever a higher rent has been recorded as demandable from any under-tenant or raiyat than the rent previously paid by him, the Settlement-officer shall cause to be published a copy of the jamabandi or extracts therefrom, specifying in respect of each such under-tenant or raiyat the rent recorded as payable by him, and, in the case of a raiyat, the clause or clauses of section 6 of this Act under which his rent is enhanced.

Such publication may be lawfully made by affixing a copy of the jamabandi, or of such extracts therefrom as the Collector may think fit, at the mál-kachahri of the village to which the jamabandi relates, or at some other conspicuous place therein, and by proclamation by beat of drum in the said village to the effect that the said copy or extracts have been so affixed, and that the jamabandi can be inspected at the office of the Settlement-officer.

Suit to contest rents.

10. Every under-tenant and raiyat shall be liable to pay the rent recorded as demandable from him under this Act, unless it shall be proved in any suit instituted by such under-tenant or raiyat to contest his liability to pay the same that such rent has not been assessed in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

But nothing in clause (c) of section 7 of this Act or in this section shall be held to limit the discretion of the Court in determining in any suit under this section the rent of an under-tenant of the class described in the said clause (c).

No suit under this section shall be instituted otherwise than within four months after the publication of the jamabandi or extracts as aforesaid, in the village in which the lands which are the subject of the suit or any part thereof are situated.

Procedure in suits to contest rent recorded as demandable.

11. In all suits instituted to contest the rent recorded as demandable under this Act the Court shall, if it modifies or sets aside such rent, proceed to determine the rent payable by the plaintiff in accordance with this Act, and if any arrears of rent at the rates determined by the Court are found to be due, shall make a decree in favour of the defendant for such arrears, with such costs as may seem proper.

Enhancement when to take effect.

12. If publication of the copy of a jamabandi or of extracts therefrom as provided in section 9 of this Act is made within the first six months of the year of the era current in the district, the enhancement may take effect from the beginning of the year in which such publication may have been made; otherwise it shall take effect from the beginning of the next following year.

13. Rent recorded as demandable under this Act, or fixed by a final decree in any suit as aforesaid, shall not be liable to enhancement until ten years shall have elapsed from the date on which the settlement took effect, or until the period of the settlement shall have expired, whichever may first occur.

Rent to hold good for ten years or until expiration of settlement.

14. The provisions of this Act shall apply to all settlement-proceedings under Regulation VII of 1822<sup>a</sup> which may have been confirmed after the commencement of Bengal Act III of 1878,<sup>b</sup> or which may hereafter be confirmed or sanctioned by the revenue-authorities from time to time empowered in that behalf by the Lieutenant-Governor, whether such proceedings shall have been commenced before or after the commencement of the said Act.

But the Settlement-officer shall inquire into, settle and record all rights in, or claims to, the lands of a village of which he is preparing a record-of-rights, even though such claims or rights may not be urged by the parties interested.

Demarcation of excess waste.

15. The Settlement-officer shall demarcate and define the boundaries of each village, and, when doing so, he may exclude from such village any large area of waste or forest which may be beyond the reasonable requirements of the village :

Provided that no block of waste-land or forest of which the people of the village have hitherto had the use shall be excluded from such village if before such exclusion one-third of the total area of the village is cultivated or is fallow in due course of agricultural rotation, according to the practice of the country.

The exclusion of any waste-land from any village under this provision shall not affect any proprietary rights in the land, but such rights shall remain intact.

Review of decisions regarding rights of village-head-

16. Any decision regarding the rights of the mánjhís or other village-headmen, passed by any officer appointed under Act XXXVII of 1855, which may on due enquiry be found by the Settlement-officer to have been passed under a misapprehension as to the laws in force in the Sontal Parganas, or without sufficient inquiry into, and regard for, the customs of the country and of the people, may be reviewed and modified by such Settlement-officer.

Mánjhís or village-headmen.

17. In deciding the status, rights and claims of mánjhís or other village-headmen, the Settlement-officer shall have regard to the following rules :—

(a) Any mánjhí or other headman of a village, who may have lost his office, or the management of his village, for whatever cause, or in whatever manner, on any date after the thirty-first December 1858, shall be eligible for reinstatement in such headship, and in the lease or management of the village, if he has a fair and equitable claim thereto :

(b) No claim to be recorded as mánjhí or headman with an occupancy-right in the lease or management of a village shall be conclusively shut out by reason of the claimant having been described as a mustájir or farmer in any deed to which such claimant may have been a party :

(c) If the rent now payable by any mánjhí or headman of a village appear to the Settlement-officer inequitable, by reason that such person has rights independent of contract, or that he was not in a position fairly and freely to contract, the Settlement-officer may modify and abate such rent and fix a fair and equitable rent.

If the rent appears to the Settlement-officer to be too low, he may enhance such rent either immediately or prospectively on the termination of any existing agreement.

The rent payable by any mánjhí, farmer or other headman of a village shall be determined on a consideration of the rates of rent payable in the neighbourhood, and of the number of ploughs at work in the village, and of such other matters as may appear to the Settlement-officer to afford ground for an equitable decision.

If necessary, the cultivated and uncultivated land in such village may be measured.

18. In deciding the status, rights and claims of raiyats or occupiers, the Settlement-officer shall have regard to the following rules :—

Rights of rai-yats or cultivators.

(a) Any raiyat who may, either himself or through persons from whom he inherits, have held fields in a village for a period of 12 years shall be deemed to have occupancy-rights in such fields :

(b) Any raiyat who, having possessed a right of occupancy or an equitable claim to occupancy, has lost possession of his land or any portion of his land since the thirty-first day of December 1858, may claim to be replaced in possession of such land, and to be recorded as possessing occupancy-rights therein, if in the opinion of the Settlement-officer he is justly entitled thereto :

(c) Any raiyat who has exchanged fields for other fields in the same village shall be held to have acquired an occupancy-right in the fields taken in exchange in the same manner as if no exchange had taken place :

(d) Where raiyats holding lands under a mánjhí or other headman of a village pay their share of the village-rent according to any fixed custom or proportion, or where the share of rent payable by each raiyat is fixed annually or periodically by the village-elders or in any other way, the existence of such custom shall be recorded :

(e) When the raiyats of any village pay rent either direct to the proprietor or to his agent, or to any farmer, or to a mánjhí, the Settlement-officer shall record such rents if they are fair and equitable.

If such rent appear to the Settlement-officer to be unfair and inequitable, he shall inquire into and shall re-settle such rents; and he may make such re-settlement of rents, either according to the number of ploughs owned by each raiyat, or according to the area of the cultivated land held by him, or in any other manner which may be customary and equitable.

Term for rents.

19. The rents of both headmen and raiyats, when adjusted and recorded by the Settlement-officer, shall remain unchanged for not less than seven years from the time of such adjustment and record, and thenceforward until a fresh settlement or agreement be made.

Special considerations in adjusting
rents.

20. In adjusting rents as between proprietors and mánjhís or other headmen, and between proprietors, farmers or headmen and raiyats, the Settlement-officer may, in connection with other circumstances, have regard to the agricultural skill and habits of life of the class or tribe to which the rent-payers may belong.

Settlement of rent of land
reclaimed from forest or waste.
Instalments of rent.

21. In any case in which the headmen or the raiyats or the persons through whom they claim reclaimed the land from forest or waste, regard shall be had to such fact in settling the rents.

22. The Settlement-officer shall decide, and shall enter in the village-record-of-rights, the several instalments of yearly rent and the dates on which such instalment shall be payable by the raiyats and by the mánjhís or headmen.

If the number and dates of the existing instalments press hardly upon the people of any village, the Settlement-officer shall have power to reduce the number and alter the dates of such instalments.

The amount and dates of the instalments shall remain unaltered until otherwise ordered by the Lieutenant-Governor.

Record of village-customs.

23. For every village shall be drawn up a paper setting forth the custom of the village or tribe in regard to the following facts:—

(a) the existence of the office of mánjhí or other village-headship and the duties and emoluments of each headman, and the customs of succession to the headship by inheritance, election or otherwise:

(b) the removal or suspension of a headman for misconduct, and the appointment or election to a vacant headship:

(c) the devolution of the lands held by proprietors or under-proprietors or headmen or cultivated by raiyats, any custom contrary to the ordinary Hindú or Muhammadan law being noted:

(d) the tenure of houses in the village, and the payment of ground-rents and dues by non-cultivating residents:

(e) the duties and dues of village-watchmen and other village-servants and their succession to, and removal from, office:

(f) the management and usufruct of the waste-land, and other matters relating to the internal arrangement of villages.

24. After the Settlement-officer shall have made the record-of-rights for any village, he shall notify and publish the contents of such record to the persons interested by posting it conspicuously in the village and otherwise in such manner as may be convenient.

Publication of record-of-rights.

Any person interested shall thereupon be allowed to bring forward in the original or appellate Settlement Courts any objection he may desire to make to any part of such record : and the objection so made shall be inquired into and disposed of by a decision in writing under the hand of the officer presiding in the Court before which such objection may be urged or brought on appeal or otherwise.

Objections against such record.

25. After a period of a year from the date of the publication of the record-of-rights of any village, such record shall be conclusive proof of the rights and customs therein recorded, other than the rights mentioned in the latter part of this section, except so far as concerns entries in such record regarding which objections by parties interested may still be pending.

Record to be final after a
cation.

When a record-of-rights shall have become final, or an objection to any entry in a record-of-rights shall have been finally disposed of by the Settlement Courts, such record shall not be re-opened or modified, save as provided by the customs of the village, without the previous sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal.

But in case of the discovery of material error, it shall be lawful for the said Lieutenant-Governor to direct, by a writing under his hand, that the record of any village shall be revised.

The Courts established under Act VI of 1871 are empowered to find and determine the rights of zamíndárs and other proprietors as between themselves, if any suit affecting such rights be pending at the time when this Regulation shall come into operation, or if a suit or issue be referred to the Court under the provisions of section 5, or if a suit be brought to contest the finding or record of the Settlement-officer within three years from the date of the said publication or of the final order of the Revenue Court.

But no such suit shall be brought in any Court after the expiration of three years from such date.

If in any such suit it shall be found that the finding of the Settlement-officer is erroneous, the record shall be amended accordingly.

26. Pending the completion of a settlement under this Regulation, the officers of the Sontal Parganas appointed under section 2, Act XXXVII of 1855, may, if the Lieutenant-Governor shall so direct, take up and decide under this Regulation, either on their own motion or at the request of the parties, any suit for rent or arrears of rent, or any claim for enhancement or abatement of rent, or any complaint of exaction or improper ouster from land or offices.

District off-cers may take up land-cases,

Decisions regarding rates of rent or the possession of land or offices passed by these officers under this section shall remain in force until such time as the record-of-rights for the village or villages to which such decision may refer shall be prepared.

and pass
orders.

The said officers shall also have power to pass such provisional orders as they may deem required for the maintenance of peace and order in the Sontal Parganas on all matters referred to in sections 5, 9, 10 and 12 to 24 of this Regulation: all such provisional orders shall have the force of a decision of Settlement-officers under these Regulations until such time as the record-of-rights shall have been prepared, or the matter shall have been decided by a Settlement Court.

Preamble.

And whereas the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal has proposed to the Governor General in Council a draft of the following Regulation, together with the reasons for proposing the same, for the peace and government of the said districts ;

And whereas the Governor General in Council has taken such draft and reasons into consideration, and has approved of such draft, and the same has received the Governor General's assent ;—

The following Regulation is now published in the Gazette of India, and will be published in the Calcutta Gazette, and will thereupon have the force of law, under the thirty-third of Victoria, chapter 3 :—

1. This Regulation shall extend to the districts named in the preamble, and shall come into force on the first of November 1873.

Power to prescribe and alter inner line.

2. It shall be lawful for the Local Government of Bengal, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, to prescribe, and from time to time to alter, by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, a line to be called "The Inner Line" in each or any of the above-named districts.

The Local Government may, by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, prohibit all British subjects, or any class of British subjects, or any persons residing in or passing through such districts from going beyond such line without a pass under the hand and seal of the chief executive officer of such district, or of such other officer as he may authorize to grant such pass; and the Local Government may from time to time cancel or vary such prohibition.

Penalty for crossing line without pass.

3. Any British subject or other person so prohibited, who, after "The Inner Line" has been prescribed and notified in accordance with section 2 of this Regulation, goes beyond such line without a pass, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a fine not exceeding rupees 100 for the first offence, and to a fine not exceeding rupees 500, or to simple or rigorous imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or to both, for each subsequent offence.

Power to prescribe form of pass.

4. The Local Government may from time to time prescribe by notification in the Calcutta Gazette a form of pass for each district, and may in such form fix such restrictions or conditions as the Local Government may deem fit, and may require the payment of such dues and fees for such passes as to the Local Government may seem proper.

Any holder of such a pass shall, on breach of any such restriction or condition, be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding rupees 100 for a first offence, and to a fine not exceeding rupees 500, or to simple or rigorous imprisonment, which may extend to three months, or to both, for each subsequent offence.

and when asked to produce his pass shall refuse or be unable so to do :

secondly, any person to whom a pass may have been granted, and who has committed any infraction of its conditions.
